THUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1962

Soil And Water Conservation

District Supervisor Elections

December 3-8 was Soil and ion week in Yancey County. The voters in our county have chosen This Week Carlie Rice for a three year term to begin January 1, 1963. The rest The restaurant and shops at the county was quite gratifying to open this week. the supervisors, and they wish to carrying out of a soil and water vice after the opening. conservation program for Yancey representatives and others interes-District supervisors are non-salaritial blanket of snow. ed officials, serving our district, ant role largely at their own expense and without compensation sions of the General Statutes of Rock. District supervisors are your elec- 250. ted representatives to coordinate Jack Feimster, owner of the King, and Luther Ayers.

Carlie Rice was one of the three! Yancey Soil and Water Conservatlished it as a Soil Conservation Feimster said. District in 1952. Carlie is a leading The shop, colorfully decorated of the 18th Infantry in a two-week citizen of Yancey County as well in an alpine theme, occupies live-fire field exercise near Mannas a leading Conservation farmer. nearly 1,000 feet of merchandising heim, Germany, which ended express appreciation to all who lodge's official December 15 will gine a more delightful dining atbe a restaurant, a ski clothing | mosphere," Mr. Lanier said of Soil and Water Conservation Dis- shop and a rental and equipment his operation. trict supervisors occupy a position shop, M. E. Thalheimer, president This will be the first full seaof public office and public trust. of the lodge, announced. The res- son for the ski resort which was As a member of our local board, taurant will offer snack bar ser- organized last year by Mr. Thal-Mr. Rice will assist in program vice initially and will begin full heimer and a group of Blowing planning, policy making and the breakfast, lunch and dinner ser- Rock and Boone businessmen. The Weather permitting, the ski stockholders in North Carolina. county and Yancey Soil Conserva- slopes will be open to the public tion District. Members of our coundaily after Sunday, December 16. ty and district boards will meet A cold snap, with several successregularly with agricultural agency days of below freezing weather, is necessary for the snow making ted in this important program. machinery to produce a good ini- BASE, FLA. (AHTNC) - Army state and nation in this immport- housed in the large two-story Route 1, Green Mountain, N. C. "base lodge" at the foot of the and other members of the Army three ski slopes. The lodge is Forces Atlantic (ARLANT) were situated on a state maintained all- on hand to greet President Ken-Our Yancey District is a sub- weather road 1 % miles off U. S. nedy during his recent tour of division of our N. C. State govern- 221-321 and the Blue Ridge Park- Homestead Air Force Base in ment, organized under the provi- way three miles north of Blowing southern Florida.

county and district. Many indivi- perience in the business in Florduals, agencies and other groups ida and Blowing Rock. He oper Robinson entered the Army in objectives are set up each year. ant has a seating capacity of S. C.

the various aspects of this pro- Varsity Shop in Boone, will oper- and attended Brevard College. ate the ski clothing shop. The Other supervisors in Yancey shop will offer a complete line of inson was 'amployed by Firth County are: Oscar Deyton, George | ski clothing and accessories such | Carpet Co., Burnsville. as sunglasses, wind masks, head bands and the like. It also will offer general sportswear lines INC) - Army Pvt. Jack Haun of ion District Supervisors who first and will be open year-round, Mr. Taylor, Mich., participated with space on the ground floor of the Nov. 28.

floor include the equipment sales and rental shop, which is operated by the lodge itself, a first aid room, rest rooms and offices.

The dining room, which includes a lounge built around a large stone hearth, occupies most of the second floor. There also is Water Conservation District elect Ski Lodge Opens space for a bandstand and dance combo will provide music nightly through helmer said.

ponse from the eligible voters in Blowing Rock Ski Lodge will be look the ski slopes, and an outdoor N. C. His father, Peter L. Haun, observation deck adjoins the upper lives on Route 2, Burnsville, N. C Offering service before the floor on three sides. "I can't imacorporation has mores than 800

Men In Service

HOMESTEAD AIR FORCE PFC Rabon Robinson, son of Mr. The restaurant and shops are and Mrs. Shelby A. Robinson,

The President inspected Army North Carolina. As such, super- The restaurant will be operated installations and personally thankvisors and districts have a res- by H. M. (Mac) Lanier, restaura- ed the ARLANT troops for their ponsibility to the people of our teur with more than 30 years ex- participation in the military buildup during Cuban crisis.

supply assistance of one form or ates The Chestnut Restaurant, in November 1962 and completed another. Conservation goals and Blowing Rock. The lodge restaur- basic training at Fort Jackson, > graduate of Micaville High School Before entering the Army, Rob-other members of Company A

Other facilities on the ground further familiarize Haun with his combat arms. The training weapons with safety and effectiveness under the close supervision of > training at Fort Jackson, S. C. and arrived overseas last May.

The 24-year-old soldier, whose the Christmas season, Mr. Thal Wife, Myrlee, lives at 25275 Charles St., Taylor, Mich., attended A row of picture windows over- Bee Log High School, Burnsville,

"OOH, LOOK WHO'S HERE," says Jackie to his sister Audrey as they admire the rotund Santa which centers the table for a Christmas party. Mom has wisely provided virtually unbreakable melamine dinnerware so that there will be no accidents with broken plates. The "Plans-A-Party" setting with beverage cups, napkins and gay table cloth will not only delight the young guests but save time for a busy Mom during the holiday season.

HOW TO WIN

12 mm : 1 5 15 16 1

Mixer $24.9

T. V. $138.00 EXCHANGE

(Reg. $39.95)

Drill $12.88 (Reg. $21.95

MERRY CHRISIMAS GIFIS

> Just Say "CHARGE IT"

GIVE BEASIER LIVING ...

FREE Register for $50.00 in cash to be given away Monday, December 24.

You do not have to be present to win.

Toys Galore -- To thrill any boy or girl on Christmas Morning. Come in and make your selectien now.

No Down Payment - Only $1.25 per week

Carolina Tire Compo

PHONE MU 2-2161

BURNSVILLE, N. C.

PLANTS

Bring Christmas cheer into your one dear with a lovely growing

Poinsettia, Cyclemons-Mums, Christmas Begonias, Dish Gardens, Christmas Memorial Wreaths, Christmas arrangements to grace your dining table -- TV and other arrangements, Door Swags.

Men come in, select for that lovely lady a beautiful silver service or punch bowl set, sterling silver candelabra, brass, chrystal, or a beautiful picture. We have a beautiful selection of gifts.

Ruby's Flower & Gift Shop

BURNSVILLE, N. C.