Visiting friends and relatives here during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Satir Whitson of Marbleton, Tenn., Tony Barnett of Pennsylvania, James Tipton of Erwin, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Allen of Yancey County.

BEE LOG

A group of citizens from the Bee Log Community met recently and organized a 4-H Club.

Officers of the new organization are: Sheila Pale, president; J. D. Pate, vice president; Sandra Whitson, secretary-treasurer; Donna Hensley and Jack Ramsey, song leaders; Paul Cooper, Wanda Hensley and Charles Phillips, recreation committee; Bobby Whitson, Kay Edwards and Maxine Pate, refreshment committee.

The next meeting has been scheduled May 2 at 8 p. m. in the Bee Log Elementary School.

NEWDALE

The regular meeting of the Newdale Community Club was held April 18 at the Community Playground with 10 families represented. Some work was done in order to get the athletic field ready for bulldozing. A picnic supper preceded the meeting.

Fiscal plans were made to complete the athletic field as soon as possible. A Chairman, the Rev. Thomas Rutledge, was nominated to work with the Community Youth Group. Preston Wyatt was also nominated to serve on the same committee and any others that Rev. Rutledge wishes to choose.
