Lodge of Perfection To Meet In Brevard

BREVARD, N. C. (Special)—The Lodge of Perfection of the Scottish Rite Bodies of Asheville will hold its visitation meeting in the Dunn's Rock Masonic temple on Tuesday night, May 5th.

The temple is located on East Main street in Brevard, and the meeting will begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

According to F. Gudger Cabe, the Venerable Master, buses will have the Masonic temple in Asheville promptly at 6:00 p. m.

Persons desiring transportation to Brevard are asked to meet at the temple at that time. The buses will return to Asheville immediately after the adjournment of the meeting.

A free buffet supper will be served in the dining room of the Brevard temple from 5:30 until 7:30 o'clock, with the Asheville lodge being host for the occasion.

W. C. Bangs is chairman of the food committee, and he will be assisted by several local Scottish Rite Masons.

Scottish Rite Masons in Yancey County with degrees from the 14th through the 32nd are cordially invited to be guests at the buffet supper and to attend the communication.

Local Scottish Rite Masons who are members of other Consistories are also cordially invited to attend the supper and the meeting. This invitation comes from Henry R. Henderson, Ambassador for the Brevard area.

It is hoped that local Masons will eat early so they can welcome the Asheville delegation when it arrives.

Mr. Henderson, 33rd Degree Mason, who is in charge of arrangements, announces that the Most Illustrious John I. Smith, of Greenville, S. C., will be the principal speaker at the meeting.

Mr. Smith, a 33rd Degree Mason, is Sovereign Grand Inspector General in South Carolina. He was crowned to this high post in Washington, D. C. on October 25, 1955. In 1951 he became an active member of the Supreme Court.

A native of Greenville, Mr. Smith was educated in the schools there and he is also a graduate of Davidson college.

HIGH FASHION FOR FISH

Maybe fish aren't as "fashion conscious" as it seems.

With the arrival of each new fishing season all sorts of "revolutionary" barbed contraptions are hurled into the water with the expectation of getting more and bigger fish. Sometimes the new models are successful; sometimes they aren't.

Among fishermen, tastes in artificial change frequently. If you know plugs, you'll be able to spot year-to-year progression of lure design in the tackle box of the typical bass fisherman.

But a good angler, maintain the Mercury fishing experts, can be relied on to fill a stringer using lures and baits that newer fishermen consider antiquated.

If the new models are not so vastly superior, then why is it that a recently introduced plug will earn a reputation for being "hot" on a particular lake? Usually it turns out, most of the fishermen are spending most of their time using this lure only. The fish have few other choices, so naturally the popular new plug racks up a good score.

Tests have shown that a proven lure properly fished will outlast the effectiveness of a new lure during a given period of time. If a certain plug was good once, it's still good.

Don't be too hasty about setting old favorites. Just keep them in your tackle box and you'll catch fish—sometimes.
