UF Supports Orthopedic Clinic In Yancey County

Edward Oliver Payne knows United Fund well. He and many other children—and adults—have benefited from United's support of the Orthopedic Clinic in Yancey County. The clinic was first set up in Yancey County Health Center in Burnsville in April, 1959. It comes under the program of the Crippled Children's Section of the N. C. State Board of Health. The State Board of Health requires some local organization to sponsor such a clinic. The YANCEY COUNTY UNITED FUND agreed to underwrite the local cost of the clinic, and each year contributes to its support.

Money contributed by the United Fund is used to pay for clinic supplies, X-rays for crippled children whose parents are unable to pay for them, travel expense for the specialist who comes out of Asheville, to hold the clinics, janitors services, and several pieces of permanent equipment have been purchased for the Health Center with money contributed by the UNITED FUND.

Dr. J. B. Galloway of Asheville is the attending physician who holds the Orthopedic Clinic. He is assisted by the nurses and clerks in the Avcyr-Mitchell-Yancey District Health Departments as well as a medical secretary, physical therapist and appliance representatives who come with him.

An average of from 35 to 45 patients are seen in a clinic, which is held monthly. Adults as well as children are seen by the orthopedist for evaluation and correction of orthopedic conditions to be corrected by Vocational Rehabilitation program.

North Carolina National Guardsmen, who were called into active duty with the 34th during the two World Wars, distinguished themselves by breaking the famous Hindenburg Line during World War I, and during the second War fought from the beaches of Normandy into the heart of Germany, winning five combat stars in the process.

Cooper Serving Aboard The USS Bennington

USS BENNINGTON (FHTNC) — Alan V. Cooper, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cooper of Burnsville, N. C., participated in a Navy-Marine Corps amphibious warfare training exercise called "Yard Nose" at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Oct.

in submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Bennington. The operation will test the flexibility of 11,000 Marines in an amphibious landing. They will be deployed in 39 ships manned by over 8,000 Navy men.

The scene of the exercise is a hypothetical group of "native villagers". As they are attacked by a 2,000 man "aggressor" force, a Marine Landing Team will practice counter-guerrilla warfare and help restore law and order. American "citizens" will be evacuated; then the 11th Marine Expeditionary Battalion will prepare to land.

Naval forces at sea will be opposed by "enemy" submarines and air attacks. The landing movements will be met with "aggressor" type action, as the marine amphibious force and helicopter units commence their beach assault.

UNITED FUND DRIVE

OCTOBER 12-22

Yancey County United Fund Drive Underway

The Yancey County United Fund Drive got underway Tuesday after a one night postponement of the kick-off dinner. Emphasizing this year's theme, "EVERY GOOD GUY GIVES," UF volunteers began work seeking county-wide commitment. Members of the 1964 UF Committee are hopeful as they lead the way toward the $8,220 goal.

United Fund money will be used to support the social conscience organizations — agencies operating in the field of health, education, welfare — Orthopedic Clinic, Red Cross, Scouts, community development, blind and sight conservation, Children's Home, mental health, medical research, and many others. The budget figure of $8,220 was set at a meeting on September 16 under the leadership of Mack D. Ray, Budget Committee Chairman. Allocation requests were received from the agencies and carefully reviewed. A great part of the money will be spent locally.

Individual families, teachers, industrial employees, and business men will be contacted before the drive's termination date October 22. To give recognition where it is due, next week's Record will publish a list of 100% giving firms. It is impossible for UF representatives to knock on the door of every home in the county; they therefore hope for "co-operative contact"; seek out a way to give United.

Local Schools Need 138 New Classrooms

Charles W. Edwards, Chairman of Yancey County commented emphatically on the need for 138 classrooms for the local schools. Local chairman stated that the urgent needs of the school depend on the success of this Bond Issue. Senator David Clark, State Chairman of the Steering Committee, emphasized the State-wide needs. He pointed out that in the event that the bond issue is not approved that each county will, through necessity, have to find ways and means to build their much needed classrooms.

FALL COLOR IN THE MOUNTAINS — Once again Nature's paint brush has turned the leaves into brilliant reds and golds in the Great Smoky and Blue Ridge mountains. From such vistas as here atop Grandfather Mountain, North Carolina, autumn color can be seen for miles across the valleys and foothills.
