

THE YANCEY RECORD

"Dedicated To The Progress Of Yancey County"

VOLUME TWENTY-NINE

Subscription $2.50 Per Year

BURNSVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1964

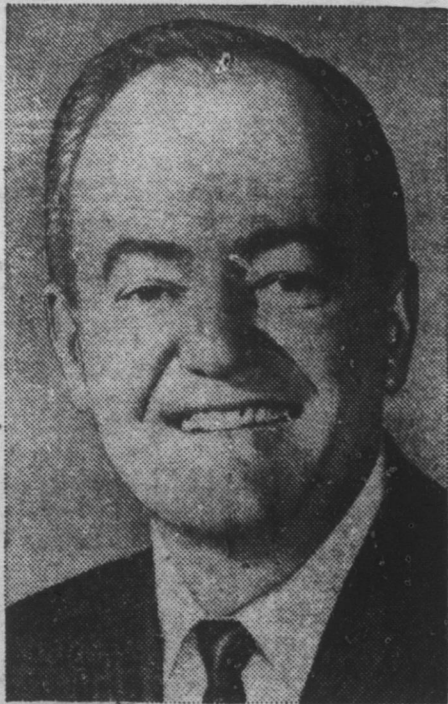

Price Per Copy Five Cents

NUMBER ELEVEN

Johnson Captures Presidency By Landslide Dan Moore Elected Governor Of North Carolina

Taylor Defeats Roberts In 11th District

Democrats Carry Yancey County

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

CLYDE M. NORTON

DAN K. MOORE

MARK W. BENNETT

President Lyndon Johnson, Democrat, was elected to the presidency for the next four years with Hubert Humphrey as vice-president in last Tuesday's election. President Johnson defeated Senator Barry Goldwater, Republican, in the national election by around 15 million votes. President Johnson was in the lead from the beginning winning with a landslide. Senator Goldwater carried Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, South Carolina and Arizona with President Johnson carrying the other states. Dan K. Moore, Democrat, won over Robert Gavin, Republican, as governor of North Carolina. Robert Scott, Democrat, is Lt. Governor. Roy Taylor, Democrat, was re-elected Congressman of the 11th district defeating Clyde Roberts, Republican, of Marshall. Clyde Norton, Democrat, defeated William Chambers, Republican, in the 34th district as State Senator.

Mark Bennett, Democrat, defeated Yates Bailey, Democrat, write-in candidate, for Representative.

The Republican party in Yancey County did not put out a ticket this year.

Eleven of 11 precincts in Yancey County:

For president, Johnson 3,714; Goldwater, 2,004. Governor Moore 3,732; Gavin 2,074. Congressman 11th district, Taylor 3,639, Roberts 2,012. State senator, Norton 3,563; Chambers 1,864. State House, Bennett 3,096, Bailey 1,510. Grace Ayers, Democrat, Register of Deeds, 3,439, no opposition; Bis Ray, Chairman of County Commissioners, Democrat, 3,475, members, Clarence Wheeler, 3,429; Floyd Wilson, 3,434, Democrats, no opposition.

The school bond passed with a vote of 3,592 for and 1,273 Against.

Local People Will Attend Open House At State College

Around 5 people from Yancey County are planning a trip to Raleigh Nov. 7 to attend an Open House at the School of Agriculture and Life Sciences at N. C. State.

E. L. Dillingham, chairman of a local group which is helping to arrange transportation and attendance, said the Open House activities are expected to be both interesting and educational.

Visitors will see some of the career opportunities awaiting young men and women in modern agriculture and the related biological sciences. They will also see how some of the school's research and extension programs help boost the economic development of North Carolina.

Tours, exhibits, lectures, slides and movies will be used in making the presentations. Short talks are planned by Dr. H. Brooks James, dean of the school, and Dr. John T. Caldwell, chancellor of N. C. State.

Part of the program will be devoted to general college information, such as admissions requirements, costs, student life and extracurricular activities.

Enrollment in the School of Agriculture and Life Sciences has been rising steadily in the last

Four Month-Old Girl Killed In Auto Accident

Connie Marie McMahan, 4-month-old girl, was killed Tuesday afternoon when the truck her father was driving went out of control on Secondary Road 1395 in the Bald Creek area, throwing all but one of the five occupants from the truck.

The dead baby was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vance McMahan of Burnsville RFD 3, according to State Highway Patrolman C. W. Warren.

Surviving in addition to the parents are a sister, Brenda Kay McMahan of the home; the maternal grandfather, Hoyt Hensley of Burnsville RFD 3; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard McMahan of Burnsville RFD 3. Funeral services were held Thursday at 2 p. m. in Prices Creek Baptist Church.

The Rev. John Murphy and the Rev. Frank English officiated and burial was in Hensley Family Cemetery.

McMahan, 23, was charged with driving intoxicated. Patrolman Warren said. No bond has been set.

Judging of WNC Dev. Program November 9

Judging to select top winners in the Western North Carolina Rural Community Development Program for 1964 will start on Monday, November 9 and run through Thursday the 12th. At stake will be top honors in the annual Community Improvement Contest which involves 120 organized areas in 15 counties this year.

The winning community in the Farm Division and the Non-Farm Division in each county will be visited by a team of judges. The judging team will spend one hour and 45 minutes in each community and will hear reports by community leaders and will view community and home improvements.

BRUSH CREEK community will represent YANCEY county in the Farm Division and will be judged on Thursday, November 12 at 4:00 P. M. DOUBLE ISLAND community will be judged in the Non-Farm Division on Monday, November 9 at 9:45 A. M.

The communities in this final judging are competing for $4450 in area awards. Winners will be announced at the annual Community Awards Luncheon in the Asheville City Auditorium on December 5. Approximately $7,000 in local awards have already been presented in county contests in the area.

Farm Division judges are Kirkman, Jr., Director of Marketing Relations, Farmers Cooperative Exchange, Inc., Raleigh; Julia Nevercel, Biltmore Farms, Asheville; and M. H. Extension Horticulture Specialist, N. C. State, Raleigh.

Judges for the Non-Farm Division are Mrs. Ada Dallas District Home Economics Specialist, N. C. State, Raleigh; Jim Assistant Manager, Carolina and Light Company, Asheville; and Frank L. Barton, Director of Information, Farm Credit Columbia, South Carolina.

The Western North Rural Community Development Program is sponsored by the Agricultural Development Council in cooperation with Agricultural Workers Council each county and local sponsors.

Four years, going from 86 fall of 1960 to 1,474 this fall. Demand for graduates still exceeds the supply.

Rev. McDonold Pastor Of First Baptist Church

Rev. Harold McDonald moved here with his family last week after accepting the pastorate of The First Baptist Church. Rev. and Mrs. McDonald and their three children, Carole 6, Harold Jr. (Hal) 3½ and Susan 20 months, came here from Fairmont, N. C. where he was assistant pastor of the Fairmont Baptist Church.

He served as assistant pastor of the Fairmont Church for three years before moving here.

Both Rev. and Mrs. McDonald are natives of Montgomery, Alabama. He graduated from Howard College in Birmingham, Ala. and South Eastern Seminary at Wake Forest. Mrs. McDonald attended Judson College in Marion, Ala. and Howard College in Birmingham.

Rev. McDonald served as part-time pastor in three churches in the vicinity of Montgomery while he was a student.

Rev. Charles B. Trammel who had served as pastor of The First Baptist Church here for 15 years retired in May of 1964. He and Mrs. Trammel moved to Elkin, N. C. where they had built a home.

Rev. Robert Melvin, Chaplin of Mars Hill College, has served as supply pastor of the Baptist Church here since that time.

Man Slain In Service Station Here

Miss Cooper Cast In "Bus Stop" At W. C. C.

Culowhee — Miss Betty Cooper of Burnsville is cast in the William Inge play, "Bus Stop", to be presented November 4-7 by the Little Theatre at Culowhee. She plays the role of Grace, owner of a small restaurant which is also the bus-stop in a small town about thirty miles west of Kansas City.

The play's action covers about twelve hours and takes place at the bus-stop where the passengers have been marooned by a blizzard. Miss Cooper is a freshman at Western Carolina College, majoring in dramatic arts. Previously, she has played the role of Mrs. Van Daam in "The Diary of Anne Frank", and was in the off-stage chorus at the Parkway Playhouse in "Little Mary Sunshine".

She is a 1964 graduate of East Yancey High School, where she was editor of the school's yearbook. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hubert Cooper of Burnsville.

Lloyd Byrd Manager Of Shepherd's Sinclair Service

Lloyd Byrd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Byrd of Jacks Creek, is managing Shepherd Sinclair Service in Burnsville now.

Mr. Byrd was discharged from the Army in September after three years of service. He was stationed in Etahn, France for eighteen months with the 97th Engineers. He is married to the former Miss Barbara Riddle, and they have one son, Michael. Mr. and Mrs. Byrd live in Burnsville RFD 6.

Burdette Allen, 35, of Burnsville was shot and killed in a service station here late Wednesday night. The shooting incident occurred at approximately twelve o'clock in the West Burnsville Shell Station, according to Policeman Ralph Penland, who was called immediately following the shooting.

Officer Penland stated that Bill Deyton, an employee at the all-night station and store, was arrested in connection with the fatal shooting and was lodged in the Yancey County jail Wednesday night.

A hearing was held by Dr. W. A. Y. Sargent, county coroner, at 3:00 p. m. Thursday. The six-man coroner's jury returned a verdict of no criminal act on the part of Deyton and he was released.

The investigating officer stated that according to witnesses Allen was advancing on Deyton with his hand in a pocket, and that Deyton had advised Allen that he did not want any trouble with him. It was stated also that Allen was a frequent visitor at the all-night establishment, and that only a few nights ago Allen had pulled a gun in the station, making Deyton dance.

It was stated that death was caused from a bullet wound near the heart.

Witnesses to the shooting who testified at the hearing were Tommy Norton, Ronald Wilson, and Bobby Joe Ayers, Officer Penland said.

Funeral services for Burdette Allen will be held Friday at 3 p. m. in West Burnsville Baptist Church, with Rev. Woodward Finley officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Una Mae Young Allen; three daughters, Jean, Carolyn Joe and Cathy, all of the home; one son, Donald Burdette, of the home; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allen; three sisters, Mrs. Wilma Ketchum, of Orlando, Fla., Mrs. Thelma Redmond, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Barbara Ray, of Burnsville; one brother, Jack Allen of Jacksonville, N. C.

Dr. Hoyt Blackwell Named Christmas Seal Chairman

Dr. Hoyt Blackwell has been named Christmas Seal Chairman of Western North Carolina Tuberculosis Association for 1964.

Dr. Blackwell has been president of Mars Hill College since 1938. He is listed in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA, and has been pastor of several Baptist Churches in North Carolina. He graduated from Mars Hill College in 1922, Wake Forest College, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Union Theological Seminary, University of North Carolina, and a year each at Yale University and the University of Edinburgh.

Miss Jeanette Austin, president of the association stated in making the announcement, "We are honored that Dr. Blackwell has accepted this appointment. He has a deep interest in the year-round program of the association, and he has rendered dedicated service to the educational and religious life of North Carolina for many years."

The 1964-65 Christmas Seal Campaign will begin November 16.

United Fund Honor Roll

In the following places of business 100% of the employees have contributed to the 1964 Yancey UF campaign. They are listed here alphabetically.

- Agricultural Extension Office
- A. S. C. S. Office
- Ben & Betty's Economy Center
- Burnsville American Service Sta.
- per Market

Soil Conservation

Elec. Mem. Corp.

Yancey County Medical Association

Store

Food Center

Volvet-Buick Inc.

ville

ital

Store

Store

ing a location, keep these ideas the neighborhood appeal to you? Proximity of schools and churches, your job and shopping centers, water, sewage, fire and police protection, street lights, and Will the location of this house second car? Investigate the neighborhood ask yourself, "Will my family to the fact when you are home. Check the size of the lot, grade, and exposure. Acquaint zoning restrictions. Your attorney title. After a survey, permanent placed on the corners of the lot.

PRESE

NORTHW

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOS

airy

Club will be listed next week.