THE SECRET OF SPIRITUAL VICTORY

Believers in Christ have been made "free from sin" by grace (Rom. 6:14, 18) in the sense that they need not, indeed, should not, yield not to temptation arises (Rom. 6:12, 13). Believers have also been made "free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2) for Christ, in grace, bore the death penalty for them.

But no believer is free from what Paul calls "the law of sin which is in my members," that is the old, Adamic, nature, with its inherent tendency to do wrong. Nor is he free from the conflict with the new nature which this involves. If the Christian would be truly spiritual and deal in a Scriptural way with the sin that indwells him, he must clearly recognize its presence; he must face the fact that while, thank God he is no longer "in sin," sin is still in him.

But this conflict should not discourage us, for it is one of the true signs of salvation. It is unknown to the unbeliever, for only the additional presence of the new nature, along with the old, causes this conflict, for the Bible says about these two natures: "these are contrary the one to the other."

But not only is this conflict within the believer a sure sign of salvation it also creates within him a deep and necessary sense of our inward imperfection and of the infinite grace of a holy God in saving us and ministering to us daily in helping us to overcome sin. And this in turn gives us a more understanding approach as we proclaim to the lost "the gospel of the grace of God."

Paul's epistles show clearly that there is nothing that will so help us to overcome sin and live pleasing to God as an understanding and an appreciation of what He has done for us in Christ. As we are occupied with these "things of the Spirit" we find ourselves "walking in the Spirit," and Gal. 5:16 says: "Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh." How much better to have our lives transformed by occupation with Christ (II Cor. 3:18) and our position and blessings in the heavenlies with Him (Col. 3:1-3) than to assume the hopeless task of trying to improve the "old nature"; always engaged in introspection; always occupied with the flesh!

Good New Books At Regional Library For Every Taste

By Ashton Chapman
Important new volumes acquired by the Avery-Mitchell-Yancey Regional Library include the following titles:

MARKINGS by Dag Hammarskjöld. Every one who reads this book is bound to feel he has had the privilege of contact with a great and lovable man.

THE QUALITY OF COURAGE by Mickey Mantle. He tells why courage can be the most important asset you can possess. A book for both parents and young people.

SEEDS OF DESTRUCTION by Thomas Merton. This new book was written in, and for, a time of crisis—the moral crisis of racism and the "black revolution," and the spiritual crisis occasioned by the passing of the old order.

HOWARD THURMAN. Portrait of a Practical Dreamer, by Elizabeth Yates. Born in Daytona Beach, Fla., the grandson of slaves, the Rev. Hoard Thurman is now considered one of the great preachers of the world. This is an inspiring story about an unusual man.

THOSE WHO CARE by Laura Nelson Baker. This volume tells how you can help people through group work.

MY SHADOW RAN FAST by Bill Sands. As a youngster the author was a violent, law-breaking, convention-defying young thug. In San Quentin Prison he learned what unhappiness and savagery can do to people. Now free, he is devoting his energy and talent to organizing rehabilitation programs to help convicts and ex-convicts.

MEET THE FUTURE by Edith Patterson Meyer. People and ideas in the libraries of today and tomorrow.

THE STORY OF MOSLEM ART by Christine Price. With its excellent illustrations, this is an important addition to the Regional Library's growing collection of books on art.

THE EYE OF THE PAINTER by Andrew Loomis. No matter what preference as to form, subject matter, technique, or medium the reader brings to this book he will be rewarded by a grasp of the beauty which Mr. Loomis views as the prime concern of the artist.

SELECTED POEMS OF VACHEL LINDSAY edited by Mark Harris, who has chosen what he feels to be the most enduring portions of Lindsay's work, unified them thematically and introduced them with an extended biographical preface.

THE LOST WORLD by Randall Jarrett. This, his seventh book of poetry, has the imaginative and dramatic force that this North Carolinian's work has always had but its word portraits of human beings have a clearness and directness that are new.

TIME WAS by John Foster West. A forceful story of a man's search for the truth about the father he rejected and the mother he never quite understood. The author, born in Wilkes County, attended Morganton High School, Mars Hill Junior College and the University of North Carolina.

DANNY AND THE POI PUP by Ruth and Latrobe Carroll. These popular Tar Heel writers of children's books have created a warm and suspenseful story of a boy faced with real problems. The setting is Hawaii of the 1820s.

THE COKEBURY PARTY BOOK, Revised Edition. More than 50 completely planned parties.

ANCIENT COINS by Ted G. Weir. Collecting historic coins of ancient Greece and Rome can be inexpensive, intriguing and profitable. Illustrations and price lists are included.

THE GARDNER'S FERN BOOK by F. Gordon Foster. With photos and line drawings, this volume includes a wealth of specific information on light, soil, potting, fertilizing, watering, temperature and other important matters.

TV TODAY AND TOMORROW
BY RALF HARDESTER
TV GUIDE MAGAZINE

FRANK SINATRA JR. STARTS A TREND on the Patty Duke Show when he plays himself in a segment titled "Every Girl Should Be Married." Other young stars will visit from time to time. . . . The 90-minute NBC special, "Mary Martin Presents Easter at the Radio City Music Hall," will be produced and directed by Gower Champion. . . . Two of Universal's more successful young TV actresses—Beverly Owen and Roberta Shore—are leaving their series jobs to get married. The studio will put a new girl in Miss Owen's Munsters role, as inconspicuously as possible. Miss Shore's replacement in the Virginian has not yet been selected. . . . Screen Geas has given the title role in the planned TV series version of Marty to Tom Bosley, who made his name as the late Mayor LaGuardia of New York in the Broadway musical "Fiorello!" . . . Flipper producer Ivan Tors is readying a new series, Daktari, based on the movie "Clarence, the Cross-Eyed Lion."

Frank Sinatra Jr. . . . TV trend-setter

WALTER PIDGEON, WHOSE TV APPEARANCES ARE RARE, has two coming up in the near future: a starring role as governor of Virginia in a Daniel Boone segment, "Not in Our Stars"; and a cameo bit as a publisher of children's books in a Burke's Law episode titled "Who Killed Mother Goose?" . . . Dick Van Dyke's younger brother Jerry again is a guest star as Rob Petrie's little brother Stacy on The Dick Van Dyke Show this season. One twoperter has him in a romantic problem reminiscent of Cyrano de Bergerac's. . . . Discovery's executive producer, Jules Power, persuaded the Soviet government to allow two Russian children to come to the U.S. to tape a show. The result—a January program titled "Yuri and Irena Discover America"—will include a trip to an American school, a visit with folk singer Leon Bibb, and meetings with Washington officials. . . . Andy Williams welcomes Gene Barry on "Maverick."

TONY BENNETT IS SET TO DO AN UNUSUAL DANNY THOMAS SPECIAL. . . . ABC will present an hour-long documentary special next season based on the controversial best-selling book "The Feminine Mystique" by Betty Friedan. Van Heflin narrates. . . . Comic Howard Morris is directing and Darryl Hickman (The Americans) starring in a Desilu pilot called The Good Old Days. The show is a comedy, not nostalgia—the good old days referred to in the title are the Stone Age. . . . Universal's Conroy pilot, sometimes described as a seagoing Wagon Train, has been shooting location scenes aboard the USS Hector out of Long Beach, Cal. Series stars are John Gavin and John Larch. . . . Wolper Productions plans to film a 60-minute documentary about the home life of a couple who have 13 children. Title: "King-Sized Family." . . . CBS mixed plans of Irene Ryan (Gunny in The Beverly Hillbillies) to appear on NBC's Andy Williams Show this year.
