(Miss Ray)
 will be to England and will be important also for future caravan plans of the Western North Carolina Conference. "We will be discussing the possibility of a summer exchange with the English on the same basis as the Scandinavian exchange," the Rev. M. Stamey said. These talks will be with the Rev. Christopher Bacon, director of youth work for the Methodist Board of Education for British Methodism.

While in England, the 1965 North Carolina caravaners will visit Methodist shrines, the English headquarters of the World Methodist Council, and stay in a Methodist Youth Hostle—a type of "YMCA" for Methodist young people coming to London seeking employment or training.

The caravaners will leave Charlotte June 1 and the next day board a boat in New York City for England, arriving June 7. Arrival in Sweden is set for June 14. Following the Sweden Methodist Conference, the North Carolinians will go to the Methodist youth camp at Oreborg for the Mid-Summer Youth Festival.

The rest of the Scandinavian tour sends the North Carolinians into Finland, Norway and Denmark, with this part of the trip ending July 23. From then until Aug. 12, the group will tour western Europe, visiting The Netherlands, Belgium, West Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France.

"This caravan will give us all an opportunity to meet people in a common quest toward the deepening of our faith," the Rev. Mr. Stamey said. "Parents of the young people from other caravans have said this is a maturing experience for their sons and daughters."

The caravaners, while touring Scandinavia, mostly stay in private homes and in youth camps. While in western Europe, this year's caravan group will travel mostly by chartered bus in connection with other touring groups.

The six young collegians making this year's trip are active in their local churches, and with church work at the colleges and universities they are attending.

 Burns Statue. The Garden Club is grateful to these and the number of private individuals who have helped the club in this long-needed project. Also to the editor of the Yancey Record for the gracious words of commendation given the club in a recent issue. During the social hour the hostesses served a dessert course. Mrs. William Higgins was a guest.
