

TWO SELECTED FOR ELECTRIC CONGRESS

Two Yancey County 4-H members have been selected to attend the 19th annual 4-H Electric Congress at Durham August 16-18.

Claudette Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Brooks Wilson of Pensacola, and Ohle Carroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Carroll of Busick, will be among some 200 congress delegates.

Selection of delegates is made on the basis of achievement in the 4-H electric project, explained Waightstill Avery, Yancey County Assistant Agricultural Agent.

The Electric Congress is sponsored by four electric power companies serving North Carolina — Duke Power Co., Nantahala Power and Light Co., Virginia Electric and Power Co., and Carolina Power and Light Co., and by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation.

These firms award $100 scholarships to eight territorial winners and present gold watches to the runners-up.

The state champion receives an expense-paid trip to Chicago in November to compete with other state winners for the national title at the National 4-H Club Congress.

Carroll Mode, last year's state winner from Franklinton, won the national championship. She will be on the program in Durham this year to tell the delegates how she received the title.

4-H'ers Attend Leadership Conference

Yancey County 4-H Clubs sent five 4-H delegates to the 1965 Leadership Conference held at Swannanoa 4-H Camp. The 4-H'ers left for Swannanoa Monday, August 9, and will return Saturday, August 14.

Delegates attending from Yancey County are: Teresa McMahan, Newdale; Janet Wilson, Newdale; Susan Ohle, South Toe; Dwight Wilson, Pensacola; Lawrence Grindstaff, Jr., Brush Creek.

During their stay at Swannanoa, the 4-H'ers will have classes in crafts, radio voice, outdoor cookery, photography, recreation and record keeping, as well as many workshop sessions.

The congress begins with registration Monday afternoon, August 16. The delegates will be entertained at a dinner Monday evening. Forums, demonstrations and reports are scheduled Tuesday. There will be tours of the Morehead Planetarium at Chapel Hill and the Duke University campus. The Rev. Mr. Thomas Haggia, High Point minister, will address the delegates at a Tuesday luncheon.

Winners will be announced and awards made Tuesday evening. The conference will adjourn with breakfast Wednesday.
