TRAVELOG

By: Agnes Angell

October 13, 1965 — I ride the road again, but this time in other peoples' car. By invitation I was a passenger in a Bel-Air Chevrolet on a trip from Black Mountain, N. C. to California. Our party consisted of Mrs. Hattie Metcalf, her two sons Glenn of Knoxville, Tenn. and Robert of Ridgecrest, Cal., (owner and driver) a daughter, Mrs. Lucy Bennett, (Addie) of Los Vegas, Nev. and myself.

Leaving Black Mountain on Thursday, October 7, we drove out of Asheville via the River Road to Knoxville, Tenn. where we dropped Glenn off. Alas! we had tire trouble. Robert bought two new tires. To make up for the delay we sped along as fast as the law would allow to Nashville and Memphis where we crossed the Mississippi into Arkansas and up for the night at the Coachman's Inn in Wayne, Ark., a lovely motel (3) or more rooms, $10.00 per room) and we all slept the sleep of the just. Time was of the essence because Robert is stationed at the Naval Air Force Base in Channel Lake, Cal. and had to report for duty on Monday morning, Oct. 11. We rode steadily from Wayne, Ark. to Winslow, Arizona taking ½ hour resting periods for Bob to sleep. Addie helped out some with the driving. Bob had a little more trouble with spark plugs, points, etc., but being a good mechanic he ironed out the trouble himself from which time everything went perfect. After a good nights' rest at the Knoty Pine Motel, Winslow, Ariz., we rode all day through the torrid Arizona Desert to Eou'der Dam and into Nevada. Crossing the mountains to Knoxville I felt I was in a freezer then on the desert I was "boiled, sizzled and fried" almost to a crisp. We reached Los Vegas on Sunday, October 10 about 2:30 p. m. Poor Mrs. Metcalf seemed "done in." Addie was home and greeted by a happy husband, and a happier dog. Phoning to my son Ronald he suggested I complete the trip by plane. So I boarded a 6:15 p. m. Bonanza Airline Plane and was at the Los Angeles Airport at 1:30 p. m. where I was given a very warm welcome by the California Angells. This should have been a happy ending but unfortunately the strain of the hurry-up trip and unbearable heat of the desert caused my heart to act up, so that on Tuesday, October 12th. I landed in the Rivera Community Hospital, Torrance, Calif. where I will only be for a few days' rest. As usual, God is working through the fine doctors and kind nurses to restore my health and I am revelling in a life of ease and comfort, also adding a few pounds from the excellent food. Be back at my trailer home at 129 N. W., 79th St., Miami, Fla., 33150, sometime around November 1st. to 5th. More Anon.
