

Thalheimer Will Return As Ski Lodge Mgr. Of Blowing Rock

Blowing Rock Ski Lodge, Inc. has announced that Mr. M. E. (Bill) Thalheimer will return as manager of the ski area this winter. Mr. Thalheimer is one of the founders and developers of Blowing Rock Ski Lodge. He both planned and supervised the building of the Area. He operated it for the two seasons missing 1964-65 season.

Mr. Thalheimer spent last season visiting other ski areas. He has taken advantage of what he learned last season by making improvements in the handling of rental equipment. He has been working with his engineering staff to improve the snow making facilities. This is being done by upgrading of the equipment and the re-vamping of all phases of the snow making equipment, so that it will be possible this season to increase the amount of snow made at any time, weather permitting, since the most important thing to skiing is good snow conditions.

Blowing Rock Ski Lodge Restaurant will be operated this season under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Siebert who were brought here from California for this position. Many improvements will be found in the redecorated restaurant area as well as a varied menu appealing to all.

Skilling reports will be issued daily by the weather bureau in North and South Carolina and in addition will be sent to all news mediums through the AP and UP service.

Mr. Thalheimer said that season tickets will be available after November 1st. and may be secured by writing, phoning or visiting Blowing Rock Ski Lodge. This will give people plenty of time to give the tickets for Christmas Gifts.

Mr. Thalheimer is looking forward to a big season.

Miss Bowditch First Burnsville Club In Junior Division Awarded Gavel

Miss Ramona Bowditch, Yancey County Senior 4-H Club member, placed first in the junior division of the Make-It-Yourself With Wool Contest. Thirty two other girls from across the state competed in the Junior Division, with a total of 79 competing in the Sub-Deb, Junior and Senior Divisions. This contest is sponsored by the American Wool Council, and was held on the N. C. State College campus in Raleigh on October 23.

Ramona's ensemble is composed of a sleeveless wool A-line dress, topped with a stand-away collar jacket which gives a suit effect. Both dress and jacket feature top-stitching.

For her ensemble, Ramona selected a loosely woven, soft yellow woolen fabric. Her accessories were composed of a moss green cloche hat and dark brown leather gloves and shoes. In this particular contest, the overall appearance is very important as well as the actual construction.

The award was an expense-paid trip to the Regional Contest, which is to be held December 18 in Nashville, Tennessee. Miss Eowditch and Miss Mary Lamm, Senior Division winner, will be accompanied by Mrs. Ruby T. Miller, Clothing Specialist with N. C. Extension Service. They will leave by plane from Raleigh.

Ramona is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bow-

The Yancey County Home Demonstration Achievement Night program was held on Thursday night, October 28 at the Community Building in Burnsville. Mrs. Clyde Edwards, president of the County Council, presided.

At 6:30 p. m. a covered dish supper was enjoyed by home demonstration members and their families. A total of 60 persons attended the meeting.

Mrs. Troy Ray, member of the Burnsville Club, gave an inspiring devotional. The group was greeted by Mr. E. L. Dillingham, County Extension chairman.

The program was presented by four Home Demonstration Clubs. Burnsville Club presented slides an commentary on the Town of Burnsville; Arbuckle and Newdale Clubs gave a demonstration on kneading bread; Pleasant Grove told the group how to make a Christmas corsage.

The Burnsville Club was awarded the Gavel for being the outstanding club during 1965. Mrs. John Bennett, president, reported on the activities of the Burnsville Club.
