

Byrd Creek News

By: Donald McCourry
Route One Box 16
Relief, N. C. 28769

Carlous Gouge of the Pigeon Roost area was here one day last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Miller and three children of the Tipton Hill area spent the night of Nov. 5th, here visiting with Mrs. Miller's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Barnett spent a night recently on Left Hand Fork Creek, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Peterson and children; and Luther Peterson.

Bobby Edwards who is employed in Burnsville, did not work last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Peterson of Pigeon Roost, spent the week-end at Hendersonville, N. C. visiting with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Byrd moved two weeks ago to a dwelling belonging to George Bennett, on Pigeon Roost.

Philip Fills, London Parry and John Normon from Newland, N. C. were here in Dog Flat Hollow two weeks ago, buying some hemlock shrubbery.

Marion Miller recently spent a night at Tipton Hill, visiting with his two brothers, Harvey J. and Fonzer Miller.

Mrs. Hester Ray recently moved from Eyrd Creek, back to her home place on Pigeon Roost.

The farmers here in this vicinity say that this year was the best year for corn, that had been in several years. Corn here in this area last year wasn't any good much, due to that the wind blew most of the corn down.

The weather here in this area at this writing has begun to warm up somewhat. For the past week or so, the temperature here in this area, were considerably cold, for a week with frost. Not any rain has fallen here in several days, or even weeks.

Sherrell Griffith of the Tipton Hill section was here several days ago on business.

Frank Bennett, who owned a farm for several years on rich Mountain, has sold the farm recently. It is reported that Mr. Bennett recently purchased a place in the nearby Poplar area, where Bennett has lived for several months, after moving from Rich Mtn., several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett recently spent a week-end at Lenoir, N. C. visiting with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Toney Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnett and two sons, from Lenoir, N. C. were here over the past week-end, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barnett, and brother, Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Sturgill, son and daughter, from Johnson City, visited here October 31st, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Hughes.

The Pigeon Roost FWB Church has been completed inside, and services are being held now, once again. There will begin 3rd Sunday in this month, at this church, a singing. A singing was started last summer and was stopped until this month, which it will begin again, on the 3rd Sunday of each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peterson of Hendersonville, N. C. spent the night of October 30th, here visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller.

Mrs. Wayne Murphy and two children, and Trudy Price from Lenoir, N. C. were here recently visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey G. Hughes.

Mrs. R. C. Byrd and Mrs. Clyde Hopson were in Erwin, Tenn. one Sunday recently visiting.

Rev. Joe Farnett of the Tipton Hill area was in this area recently visiting.

Rev. and Mrs. Joe Brown of the Jake Hollow area, recently visited with the Hughes boys here at Byrd Creek.

Pat Hughes of the Pate Creek area recently was here at Byrd Creek on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Farnett of Lenoir, N. C. and children were here at Byrd Creek recently visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barnett.

Luther Peterson of the Poor Flat area recently spent a night here visiting with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Peterson recently were here visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Peterson of the Brummett's Creek area were recently in this section visiting with relatives and friends.

D. J. Hughes recently got his call for the U. S. Army. Mr. Hughes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hughes, and is at the present time employed in a Manufacturing Company at Lenoir, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hughes recently spent two nights at Lenoir, N. C. visiting with their two children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson and two children.

Trudy Price from Lenoir, was recently at the Jake Hollow area visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hughes.

Linda Setzer and Ginger Stezer of Lenoir, recently spent a night at Jake Hollow area visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey G. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson and two children from Lenoir, N. C. were here over the week-end visiting with friends and relatives.

Clyde Hopson was at Byrd Creek over the week-end, visiting with home folks.

Caly Miller of the Cane River area was recently here on business.

The writer of the column spent 13 days and 9 nights recently at Erwin, Tenn., on business, and working in the office and plant that prints the Erwin Record. The writer walked nearly all of the way back on Friday, November 5th, cross the Unaka Mtn. region. This distance is approximately 25 miles. The writer made the trip in about 6 hours.

Glenn Bennett recently went of on picnic excursion. Bennett was accompanied by several others on the trip, which was to the Beauty Spot area located on the Unaka Mt. area.

Hunting season here in this area this year was poor, according to the hunters who say that there weren't too many squirrels.

"ROUND THE TOWN"

Mrs. Luther Wells is a patient in Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville where she is under observation.

Miss Amelia Penland, a student at UNC, Greensboro, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Penland, here last week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Trammel of Elkin, N. C. visited friends in Burnsville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Styles and Mrs. Eloise Young and children, Doug, Janice, Dary and Brenda visited Mr. and Mrs. Billy Styles and family and Mrs. Claude E. Robinson and her mother, Mrs. Effie Mitchell, in Charlotte last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Derrough and children of Asheville were week-end guests of Mrs. Derrough's mother, Mrs. Troy Ray.

The women of the Higgins Memorial Methodist Church gave the Arthur Letterman family, who recently moved into their new home a house warming on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Mrs. Zaida Raglan Leavitt of Gastonia, N. C., visited Mrs. C. W. Murphy, Miss Zoe Young and other relatives in Burnsville Wednesday, Nov. 3rd.

Mrs. Martha Kanipe and

Floyd Hughes from the Byrd Creek area was recently in Johnson City on business. Mr. Hughes was accompanied by this reporter.

Mrs. Sally Barnett from Ohio spent several nights in this nearby area about 4 weeks ago, visiting with Mrs. Martha Barnett and two sons, Wilbur and Bradley.

Luther Bennett of the Bailey Settlement area was recently here on Byrd Creek on business.

Carlous Gouge of the Pigeon Roost area was here last week, cutting some wood for Ashley Gouge.

Mrs. Eohlee Peterson of the Brummetts Creek area was at Pigeon Roost last week on business.

Mrs. Euster Ledford of the Tipton Hill area was here on Byrd Creek last week on business. Mrs. Ledford was accompanied by Mrs. Edythe Miller of Tipton Hill and Mrs. Garther Barnett of Pigeon Roost vicinity.

Rev. Holt Harrell of Tennessee was at the Hunt Dale church on Sunday night of October 31st.

Rev. Holt Harrell, who is pastor of Woodby Hill Baptist Church in Tennessee, told the writer recently that he was to leave this past Sunday for Flint, Mich., where he will be in a revival for about a week.

The Heavenly Light Quartet from the Pigeon Roost FWB Church was at Hunt Dale Church recently, there where they did some singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Aspie McCurry and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farnett and Mrs. R. C. Byrd attended a recent service at the Hunt Dale church.

Grover Byrd of the Pigeon Roost area was here at Byrd Creek this past Saturday on business.

Furnie Arrowood from Erwin, Tenn., who is pastor of the Pigeon Roost FWB Church, is scheduled to start a revival at the Miller's Chapel Church at Cane River on Monday night, Nov. 8.

Miss Roberts Engaged To Talmadge Banks

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wesley Roberts announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Thomas, to Russel Talmadge Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Banks of Route 2, Burnsville.

Miss Roberts is a student at Western Academy of Hair Design in Asheville, North Carolina.

Mr. Banks is employed by H. and B. Lumber Company, of Woodlawn, North Carolina. A December wedding is planned.

Club To Meet

The Burnsville Woman's Club will hold its regular meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8:00 p. m. in the Community Building. Mrs. Alice Hopson will have charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kanipe of Asheville visited Miss Zoe Young on Wednesday, the 3.

Mrs. Elizabeth Silver has returned to her home in Burnsville, after more than a month's visit with her daughter and family. Mrs. Penn Hyams, in New Jersey, and daughter Margaret, Mrs. Jack Rogers, of Winston-Salem, Dr. and Mrs. Rogers and children accompanied her home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis of Asheville and Howard Murphy of Erwin, Tenn., visited their mother, Mrs. C. W. Murphy, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Short Pollard will be leaving on Thursday, the 11th, for Pompano Beach, Florida. During their absence Mrs. Byrd Gillespie and son Joe and wife will be in charge of the Mt. Mitchell Motel, where they will make their home until the Pollards return in May, 1966.

Dr. and Mrs. Julian Cornwell and children visited Dr. and Mrs. James I. Cornwell of Asheville Sunday. Also visiting with them were relatives from Charlotte, N. C., and Chester, S. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Garland Wampler spent a part of last week in Durham, where Dr. Wampler attended the North Carolina Academy of General Practice, which was held October 31 through November 2nd.

Born in Yancey Hospital, November 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Colwell of Bakersville, a son, Stephen Wayne.

Dorsey-Robinson Marriage Announced

Miss Patricia Eleanor Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dorsey of 2804 Yubular Ave., Charlotte, N. C., became the bride of James Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Robinson of 207 Judson Ave., Charlotte, on November 3. Rev. Charlie McMahon performed the wedding ceremony at his home in Micaville, N. C. The couple will reside in Charlotte, where they both are employed.

PTA MEETING

The Burnsville Elementary PTA will meet Tuesday, Nov. 16th, at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Scouts To Honor Parents

A special program honoring the parents will be presented on Friday, November 12, at 7:30 p. m. by the Brownies and Girl Scouts of Burnsville and the South Toe community. The program will be given in the auditorium of the Burnsville elementary school. It will consist of songs, dances and a short skit. All parents and friends are invited.

Men's Breakfast At Methodist Church

The men of the Higgins Memorial Methodist Church will hold their regular monthly breakfast meeting in the fellowship hall of the church on Sunday morning, November 21 at 8:00 a. m. Mr. Harold Bolling of Asheville will speak on the Eye Bank.

Veteran's Day Program At Cane River High School

Cane River High School will hold a patriotic program in the school auditorium at one o'clock on Veteran's Day, Nov. 11th. Among other features will be a short talk by Mr. Grady Bailey on what the Veteran's Administration is doing for veterans, widows, and children of veterans in the county.

Gospel Sing

There will be a gospel singing at the Ivy Gap Baptist Church Saturday night, at 7:30 p. m. All singers and the public are invited to attend.

Craft Classes At South Toe School

Persons interested in the craft classes in native materials will meet Monday, Nov. 15 at the school, as early as 6 p. m. The executive meeting of the PTA will meet at 7 p. m., followed at 7:30 by the regular business meeting.

Materials needed for the making of plaques include seed pods, nuts, cones and 'woods rose' fungus. Large fungus or plywood pieces should be brought for the background, according to Mrs. Andrew Johnson, instructor, and Mrs. Alice Hopson, Home Economics Extension Agent.