each from Forest Rangers, Biltmore Dairy Farm, and Yancey County Chamber of Commerce.

Officials of the Yancey County Merchants Association, who sponsor the overall parade, report that a wonderful spirit of working together has prevailed during the building of the floats.

The Chamber of Commerce float will carry a live Santa Claus in the person of Charles J. Wesson. Mr. Wesson is on the Board of Directors of Yancey County Chamber of Commerce, Vice-Pres. of the Burnsville Men's Club, and Vice-Commander of the American Legion Post 122. Mr. and Mrs. Wesson came here from Fairhaven, N. J. eight years ago.

During the parade no parking will be allowed from the new court house building to the Hilltop Restaurant. Arrangements have been made for parking facilities north of Hilliard's Service Station, the Methodist Church parking lot, and the vacant lot north of Hilliard's service station.

According to Yancey County Chamber of Commerce officials, Burnsville's second annual Christmas parade will be covered by a representative of the ASHEVILLE CITIZEN-TIMES, CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, and TV Station WLOS, Channel 13, Asheville, as well as Radio Station WTOE, Spruce Pine.

Banks Pharmacy and Flower Shop is sponsoring live coverage of the parade over STATION W T O E, Spruce Pine. Television coverage will be carried over WLOS, Channel 13, Asheville, on its 6:15 news program Monday night, the 29th.

Judging the floats will be Bob Seymoure of ASHEVILLE, CITIZEN - TIMES Mrs. Peg LoPiccolo, owner of the Candlelight Shop at Celso, and Mrs. Robert Rhinehart of Burnsville.

Fire Deaths in Homes

NEW YORK—About 30 per cent of the 6,550 persons killed by home fires in the United States in 1964 were children, according to the Insurance Information Institute. Many of the victims had been left alone and perished because they were unable to protect themselves.

The National Anthem begins the festivities at the Burnsville Elementary School here in their annual Harvest Festival Friday night.
