DEER HUNTERS MAKE BIG HAUL

The hunters in the Mount Mitchell Game Refuge made a good haul in the either sex two day deer hunt last week the 17th and 18th. According to Refuge Manager Lee Boone 610 hunters checked in at the South Toe checking station on the 17th and 18th, and they brought down a total of 55 deer in the two days. At the Curtis Creek checking station 494 hunters registered and their take amounted to 34. Hunters flocked in from practically the whole state, with a sprinkling from Tennessee and South Carolina. Needless to say a number of our local hunters were on hand.

TREE FOR GOVERNOR'S MANSION DELIVERED

A Christmas tree for the Governor's Mansion was delivered from Burnsville last Thursday. The tree, a balsam fir from the Mt. Mitchell Forestry District, was fifteen feet tall.

The tree was a gift from the Yancey County Chamber of Commerce.

Ranger Helton Carmichael and his U. S. Forestry associates from this district located and cut a tree suitable to deck the Governor's hall.

Present for the tree loading at the county courthouse here Thursday morning were, Don Burhoe, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Helton Carmichael, District Ranger; George Roberts and James Fox.

George Roberts of Roberts Chevrolet-Buick, Inc. here furnished the truck to transport the tree, and James Fox made the delivery to Raleigh.
