THIS IS THE GOSPEL
Subject: Noah Saved From Wrath

Text: Gen. 6-7; And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth. Both man and beast, and the creeping things, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

In this chapter we have a dark dismal picture of man, It's a picture of sin when it is finished, and God's wrath. For Sin when it is finished bringeth forth death. The coming forth of Noah and his family from the Ark, may be a foreshadowing of the coming of Christ and His Saints to bless a new earth, purged by the Judgment of God. When God looked down and saw the Sinfulness of man He said, the end of all flesh is come before me. Evil, only evil, continually; Note this world today, its fast ripening for the coming Judgments of God. Evolutionists predict a different end, but God has already sp-ken in his word. (2 Peter, 3-10) the Bib'e declares: "The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night, in the which the Heavens shall pass away with a great noise, the elements shall melt with fervent heat and the earth and the works which are therein shall be burned up". Evil, evil, continually, unregenerate man, this is the end of your supposed good life, as seen by a Holy God. But God had a divine plan for the Salvation of Noah, and his family. God said to Noah, make an Ark; The Ark was Gods way for Noah to escape the flood. God always has a plan of Salvation, and deliverance from wrath, and Judgment, for those who will listen and believe him. What a revelation of Grace has come to us through Jesus Christ; God laid on him the Iniquity of us all. How gracious God is to us today, in providing a Refuge through Christ. There is no escape for those who neglect his merciful provision. How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a Salvation. (Heb. 2-3), let us remember Lots wife. God said to Noah, come thou and all thy house, into the Ark. He that made a way of escape, gives the invitation to enter the Ark. The same God today who predicts the coming wrath, and that the wicked will be turned into Hell, pleads with man to repent and turn from his sins, before it is too LATE. In (Rev. 22-17) he gives an invitation; The Spirit and the Bride say come, and let him that heareth say come, and let him that is athirst say come, and whosoever will let him come, and take the water of life freely. Gods will is to save both you and your house, Acts 16-31; Then the Lord shut them in. When God shuts the door no man can open it. May I say to you in this message, God has provided for your escape, and for your Salvation, through Jesus Christ. Have you accepted it? Or are you still putting it off? Remember, tomorrow could be too late.
