Sunday School and church services held each Sunday morning, also church services Sunday evening and Wednesday evening.

A very successful Vacation Bible School has just come to a close with an enrollment of 95 and average attendance of 75.

The Penley Cemetery is located in the Middle Fork Section of Madison County, four miles north of Mars Hill, on the Burnsville highway.

Ed Ball is in charge of arrangements.

Burnsville Presbyterian
Work is progressing on the sanctuary of this church. The congregation is looking forward to the dedication services in August.

Agnes Burhoe and Patti Ho.combe are in camp at the Holston Presbytery Camp at Banner Elk.

Higgins Memorial
Commencement exercises will be held Friday for Vacation Bible School.

Sunday, June 26th, this church will observe "V-Day", celebrating the payment in full of the debt on the new educational building.

Mrs. Tillie Brooks will be host to the MYF Sub-District at her home on Monday, the 27th. The fun will begin at 4:00 p. m., with a swim party, followed by a picnic supper and vesper services.

Newdale Presbyterian
The women of the church have been busily engaged in furnishing the manse for the arrival of the new pastor, Rev. Stephen Woodard. A "shower" was held on Tuesday night, at which time the members of the Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church joined with the Newdale congregation in putting the finishing touches on this project.

The congregations of these two churches are looking forward to the arrival this week of Rev. Woodard, who will be in the pulpit of the Grassy Creek church at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and the Newdale church at 11:00 o'clock.

Filst Baptist
Approximately 118 children who attended Vacation Bible School, showed what could be accomplished in such a school at their commencement exercises last Friday night with a fine exhibit of crafts along with a most interesting program put on by the students. Miss Sarah Hensley, Principal, along with her staff of able teachers — and we would not leave out the minister, Rev. Harold McDonald, are to be congratulated on their fine school. In the absence of Rev. McDonald, who will be on vacation for two weeks, Rev. Bob Melvin of Mars Hill, will serve as interim pastor. Rev. Melvin is well known to this congregation, as he has served as supply pastor on numerous occasions.

Micaville Presbyterian
The only thing new with this church is that they are putting the finishing touches on their renovation — all that remains to give it an entirely new appearance are the installation of new windows, which work will be finished up this week.

A speaker system has been installed in Sun Valley Rest Home, enabling the residents of the home to take advantage of Sunday morning services from this church. The residents of the home deeply appreciate this gracious gesture on the part of the church and the church is grateful for the privilege of extending this service.

There will be a decoration and memorial service at the Penley Cemetery Sunday, June 26, at 2:00 p. m. Featured on the program will be the West Asheville Gospel Singers, and other outstanding gospel singers. Rev. Ben Lee Honeycutt will be one of the speakers.

All gospel singers, and the public, are invited to attend and take part in the program.

Pleasant Valley Baptist
The pastor and congregation of this church extend a cordial invitation to everyone to worship with them each Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and Sunday night at 7:30 also to attend Sunday School each Sunday at 9:45 a. m., and prayer service each Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m.

They would also like to announce their revival services to begin July 11, with Evangelist Buck Ledford, Maryville, Tenn. as preacher.

This church is located on Possum Trot Road. The pastor is Rev. Harlon Ramsey of Mars Hill.

DON'T PUT OFF minor alterations. When a button pops off, sew it back on as soon as possible to keep the garment in shape. Rips, tears and the like only get worse without rapid mending.
