A LETTER FROM DAD
Continued
And Faye was set to go. And because that Faye dropped out.,
Why, Jack, he dropped out too.
But they both have factory jobs;
So don't you let it worry you."

Dad can really cheer me up With just a one-page letter.
For I've learned to tell his meaning;
'Cause things are really better.
He just tells me all the bad, And leaves out all the rest He knows that if he tells the good,
That I'll just be depressed.
You see, I'm in the Army now.
And that does make him sad;
But if he wrote what really was,
I'd be one homesick lad.

Millard Murdock
