

New Books Available At Regional Libraries

By: Ashton Chapman

The following books are among the new ones now available through the public libraries in Burnsville, Bakersville, Spruce Pine and Newland, which compose the Avery-Mitchell-Yancey Regional Library. These books may also be borrowed through the bookmobiles which the Regional Library operates in each of the three counties.

SCIENCE AND SURVIVAL by Barry Commoner. An eminent scientist shows how dangerous flaws in the structure of science threaten our existence and suggests what might be done to avert the ultimate blunder.

BATTLE FOR KING'S MOUNTAIN by Manly Wade Wellman. For youthful readers. An absorbing story about a battle which turned the tide in the Southern theatre of the American Revolution.

THE SOUTH FORK RANGERS is another story by Manly Wade Wellman about the Revolution. In this, Zack Harper and a determined group of neighbors and colorful mountain men eliminate a vengeful threat to their homes and families as well as impeding the Tory effort to assist and supply Cornwallis.

PET TALE by Ruth and Latrobe Carroll. For very young readers, this is the illustrated story of what happened when a race horse who was a pet, had a donkey who had a pet lamb who had a pet pig who had a pet rabbit and so on.

RUNAWAY PONY, RUNAWAY DOG. Another illustrated story for the very young by Ruth and Latrobe Carroll. This is about Touch Enough and Sasay, who were a long way from home—far from Beanie and the rest of the Tatum farm in the Great Smoky Mountains, and their adventures before they finally got home.

THE WINTER BEACH by Charlton Ogburn Jr. This is the fascinating account of the author's trip in a small bus equipped for camping in which he traveled along the coast from Mt. Desert Island

Home Managers Attend Raleigh Meeting

By: Shirley Anne McAllister
Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh was the scene of a meeting for training of Home Managers the same as (Friendly Home Visitors in this area). The State Board of Health requested a representative from the group of Friendly Home Visitors in Yancey County. One Visitor did have the opportunity to attend the three-day meeting and share her ideas with the women in training. Values, attitudes and beliefs of the people were given by the women and others. There were also talks by various people and panel discussions.

The Friendly Home Visitor was told by many of the women at the meeting that they had already heard about W.A.M.Y. and what the workers are doing.

The Visitor had this to say about her trip, "I am better informed and wouldn't take anything for the trip and sharing experiences with those from other areas of the state. I am glad that I am from the mountains, because I feel that I can cope with the problems here better than in the cities. I just wish I had taken a "Paw" doll with me and let him have set right beside me all during the meeting."

BIG FRAID, LITTLE FRAID by Ellis Credle. For young readers, this is what the author says was the favorite story of his childhood in Nash County, N. C.

PANNY AND THE POI PUP by Ruth and Latrobe Carroll. For the very young, this is a warm and suspenseful story of a boy suddenly faced with very real problems. The colorful drawings capture the mood and atmosphere of the story and of Hawaii in 1820.
