

TWO MINUTES

WITH THE BIBLE

Subject: IT'S YOUR ATTITUDE

Many people fear that they will never reach heaven. Some try not to think about it, while others struggle to "be good," hoping that they will finally "make it." Very few, comparatively, are sure of heaven.

The real pity is that so few understand what it is that keeps people out of heaven. If you are confused about this, just remember that according to Scripture, it is not one's sins that keep him out of heaven, but his attitude.

God has made full provision for our sins. "Christ died for our sins" (I Cor. 15:3) and "we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7).

But God has made no provisions for a self-righteous attitude. He gave the law "that every mouth might be stopped and that all the world might become guilty before God" (Rom. 3:19). Thus He does not want you to keep saying things in your own defense. In fact, before you can know God as your Savior, you must recognize Him as your Judge, righteously condemning you as a sinner.

Often, when capital crimes are involved, the defendant's attorney will tell him: "It will be to your advantage to plead guilty and to throw yourself on the mercy of the court."

This is especially true of us as sinners in the sight of a holy God. If we will only plead guilty and cast ourselves upon His mercy we will find Him more than gracious, for He has already paid the penalty for our sins Himself.

Thus Eph. 2:3-7 declares of every believer in Christ that though we were "the children of wrath... God, who is rich in mercy, for His great love wherewith He loved us" has saved us by grace, giving us a position in Christ, "that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us through Christ Jesus."

Yes, unsaved friend, it will be to your eternal advantage to plead guilty before God and cast yourself upon His mercy, "for the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 6:23).

A 30-Minute Entree

Add your own gourmet touch to a one dish meal the easy way — combining prepared chili and mushrooms under a tender, golden corn meal topping.

Muffin-topped casseroles, such as hearty Corn Capped Chili Casserole, provide "every which way" appeal. They're quick, easy and flavorful. Here, pepper flavored corn meal muffins make every bite a joy.

Time-saving self-rising corn meal, already contains baking powder and salt, and in the right amounts. Canned chili with beans may be used, or prepare your favorite chili recipe as the base. But do add sliced mushrooms for a subtle new dimension in taste and texture.

The topping made with enriched self-rising corn meal offers plenty of nutritional value, too. Calcium, iron, and the B-vitamins — thiamine, riboflavin, and niacin, are needed nutrients added to enriched self-rising products.

CORN CAPPED CHILI CASSEROLE

4 to 6 servings

- 1/4 cup (2-ounce can) sliced mushrooms
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 quart (2 1/2 lb.) prepared chili with beans
- 1 egg, beaten
- 3 tablespoons oil
- 1/3 to 1/2 cup milk
- 1/4 cup enriched self-rising corn meal

Add mushrooms to chili in large skillet. Bring to a boil. Combine corn meal and green pepper in mixing bowl. Blend together egg, oil and 1/2 cup milk. Add liquid all at once to corn meal mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. If necessary, add more milk to make a medium-thick batter. Drop by rounded tablespoonfuls in center and around edges of hot chili in skillet. Bake in preheated 425° oven, 25 to 30 minutes, or until muffins are golden brown.
