

Carolyn Fox-David McCurry Crowned May Day

Queen And King

On Manday, May 1, Cane River High School held its second annual May Day program. The program began at 1:30 with Cane River students presenting the traditional Maypole dance. These students were:

Helen Deyton - Larry Riddle, Helena King - Eugene McIntosh, Christine Honeycutt - Gary Deyton, Carolyn Talent - Bruce Briggs, Sandra Buckner - Benny Riddle, Judy Peterson - Jerry Riddle, Faye Buckner - Brady Bailey, and Nina Allen - Van Hylemon.

This year's Calico Maidens are Dana Proffitt, Kay Evans, Susan Hensley, Barbara Holcombe, Norma Allen, Bobbie Fox, and Janet Cox. They sang Cruel World, This Land is Your Land, and Sylvia. The girls wore navy blue skirts, light blue blouses and blue bandanas.

A newly formed singing group at Cane River called the "Cuckoos" sang Cuckoos, Michael, and Blue. The members of the group are Lois Doan, Edgar Anglin, Brady Bailey, and Van Hylemon. The Cuckoos have their own music which is a twelve string guitar for folk songs and an electric for "rock."

The Cane River square dance team, who attended the Mountain Youth Jamboree in Asheville, also performed. Members of the team are:

Soyna Bailey - Brady Bailey, Mary Francis Duncan - Larry Riddle, Gary Deyton - Barbara Fox, Van Hylemon - Norma Allen, Jerry Riddle - Lois Doan, Willie Jobe - Willoree Baker,

Representatives from several elementary schools participated in the program. Three year old, Raylene Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fox presented a tap dance. Students from Bee Log School, an instrumental group called "The Mistakes" performed next. They were from Mrs. G. Robinson's music class.

Mrs. Vera Ray brought two cute little girls and a boy. They stole the show with their folk dances.

Mrs. Nola Wilson brought her first grade from Burnsville School. They presented a skit called "Mama and Papa." Mrs. U. B. Deyton brought her square dance team from Clearmont.

The most exciting event of the May Day Festival was the crowning of the May Day Queen and King. The candidates were chosen from each senior homeroom. The King and Queen were chosen by most popular votes from the Cane River Senior class.

The Queens and their escorts were seated on the football field until the final moment. They were seated according to homeroom. The first couple to walk through the May Day Arch was Sandy Grinestaff and her escort, Steve Styles. Sandy wore a long pink gown with a pink umbrella. Sandy and Steve were the candidates from Mrs. J. Sparks home room. Next were Effie Murphy and Perry Wilson, candidates from Mrs. K. Zuber's home room. Effie wore a white floor length gown with a white umbrella. The next couple to walk through the Arch was Carolyn Fox escorted by David McCurry. Carolyn wore a pale yellow floor length gown and carried a yellow umbrella to match. Carolyn and David were the candidates from Mrs. C. Cox's home room. The last couple was Wanda Hensley and Tommy Robertson. Wanda wore a floor length gown of baby blue and carried a blue umbrella. Candidates from Mr. J. Buckner's home room.

The final moment came for the crowning of the Queen and King. Carolyn Fox and David McCurry were picked by the most votes to be Miss and Mr. May Day Queen and King of 1967. The crowning was beautiful and everyone was pleased with the outcome.

Master of ceremonies for the program was Lois Doan. Sponsors were Mrs. Lucy Kates and Mrs. Cara Cox.
