

Community Store Opens

By: Shirley Anne McAllister
 Here you see some faces pricing some of the many dresses in the recently-opened Community Clothing Store. If you haven't been in yet, you are sure to be interested in some of the many items available. Here you can save money and at the same time give these people who have worked so hard some moral support. This is a "community action" project and run by the people in that area. The store is located in the Bob Pate old store building on 19E between Swiss and Bald Creek. Be sure and stop at the store.
