CHURCH NEWS

The Micaville Presbyterian Women of the Church will meet Monday night, June 26, 1967, at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The Bible study from Luke 7:36-50 will be led by Mrs. Ralph Tomberlin.

Martin's Chapel Methodist Church and Windom Methodist Church, both under the charge of Rev. Alvin Jones, closed very successful Vacation Bible Schools Sunday, with commencement exercises at the Windom church at 6:00 p. m., and Martin's Chapel at 7:30 p. m. The schools ran for six days — climaxing with a picnic for each group on Saturday. Heading the different departments for Martin's Chapel school were Mrs. Alvin Jones, Fay Tipton, Nell McMahan, Frances Wyatt and Helen McKinney, along with a group of teen-age helpers. Heading the departments for Windom were Rev. Alvin Jones, Millie Hensley and Carolyn McCanless. Martin's Chapel had an average attendance of about 63; while Windom chalked up an attendance of 48.

Congratulations to Windom Methodist Church. This church is now debt-free. Dedication services will be held Sunday at the 11:00 worship service. The speaker for the occasion will be Dr. Embree Blackard, retiring District Superintendent, and Dr. Gross, the new District Supt. for the Asheville District. Rev. Alvin Jones is pastor of the church. Following the service a picnic dinner will be served to members and guests.

While the Windom Methodist membership is small, they have one of the most attractive churches in the county. Needless to say, it is a working, paying (and doubtless praying) congregation. We feel sure much sacrifice has gone into the building of this beautiful church, but what a feeling of accomplishment they must have.

Revival services will begin Sunday, June 25th, at 7:30 p. m., in Martin's Chapel Methodist Church. The visiting preacher will be Rev. James Allred, former pastor.
