

HARREL-WILSON VOWS SPOKEN

The Unaka Avenue Baptist Church was the setting at 7:30 p. m., Friday for the wedding of Wanda Lou Harrel and Roger Phillip Wilson. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Moore. A program of nuptial music was presented by soloist Brenda Issenberg with Mrs. Phyllis Shipley at the organ.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Billie Harrell Rt. 3, Boone Trail, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Burnsville, are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length formal gown of white silk organza and re-embroidered Alecon lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline and long fitted sleeves. Re-embroidered Alecon lace adorned the neckline and fell onto the skimmer body skirt in medallions. The skirt was further accented by a court train caught at the shoulders by two miniature self-fabric bows and ended in a full circular chapel sweep. Matching lace motifs edged the hemline of the train. Her veil was of imported French silk illusion gathered at the forehead to form the headpiece. The floor-length veil was edged with a wide band of lace matching that of the gown. Her colonial bouquet consisted of pale yellow roses, lilies of the valley, white lace and satin streamers.

Matrons of honor was Nancy Hodges Bradley and Marilyn Jane Snyder attended the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Ruth Elaine Harrell, sister of the bride, Lois Andrews, Linda Miller, Jones Forbes, Teresa Bathon, cousin of the bride from Hanover, Pa.

They also wore floor-length gowns of lime green silk chiffon over taffeta. They wore matching headpieces composed of a cabbage rose and circular veiling and carried colonial bouquets of pale yellow carnations.

Keely Isaacs, flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of daffodil yellow whipped cream with an empire waistline and puff sleeves.

Ring bearer was Mark Daneel Kron, cousin of the bride, of Glen Rock, Pa.

Best man duties were performed by F. Omar Bradley. Ushers were Ricky Wilson, brother of the bridegroom; Gary Whitson, the bridegroom's cousin; Thomas J. Bathon, cousin of the bride; Ken Ketron, H. Jack Burress and Jimmy Ketron, Bedford, Va.

A reception was held at the church after the ceremony.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Gatlinburg and the Smokies.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Anglin and Mr. and Mrs. George Black and sons, Roger and Scott, of Canton visited Mr. and Mrs. Edd Anglin and family of Clairton, Pa., and also Mr. and Mrs. Van Masters of Lexington, Ohio, last week.

Miss Hope Buck of Knoxville, Tenn., visited her mother, Mrs. D. M. Buck, at Bald Mountain last week.

The Misses Debbie and Darlene Deyton, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Deyton of Barstow, Calif., are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, and their aunt, Mrs. James Riddle.

Mrs. E. L. Dillingham and Mrs. Norris Deyton spent several days in New York recently, where they visited many places of interest and did a lot of sight seeing. They went especially to see Susan Dillingham and Carolyn Ray off on a tour of Europe.

Gary Presnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Presnell of Newdale, is attending Governor's School in Winston-Salem this summer.

Mrs. Warren Young of Route 2 is a patient in Spruce Pine Community Hospital.

Elizabeth Boone, sixteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boone of Rt. 2, was bitten by a copperhead Saturday. She was taken immediately to Dr. Wampler's office, and from there to Memorial Mission Hospital. We are glad to report that by prompt medical attention she improved rapidly and was released from the hospital on Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Wilson of Rt. 2, entered Spruce Pine Community Hospital on Wednesday for observation and treatment.

Ransom Higgins is recuperating nicely following surgery at Memorial Mission Hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Ellis of Sun Valley Nursing Home is in Memorial Mission Hospital, where she is undergoing treatment for a broken leg.

Mrs. Ernest Briggs entered Memorial Mission Hospital on Tuesday for examination and observation.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Deyton and children visited her parents in South Carolina last week-end.

Mrs. Margaret Miller and girls, Cordelia and Chris, Misses Betty, Sara and Willie Molt Hensley and Miss Maglee Ray have returned home after vacationing at St. Augustine, Fla. Mrs. Miller and children and Betty and Maglee attended the automobile races at Daytona Beach while they were gone.

Miss Ramona Penland and Mrs. Kathleen Penland visited in Greensboro last week.

John Penland has returned home from Roanoke Rapids, N. C. where he visited Miss Mikki Hazelwood.

Tommy England who is with the U. S. Marine Corps in Paris Island, S. C., visited family and friends here last week-end. He had as his guest, Bob Janicke of Conn., also with the Marine Corps in Paris Island.

Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Webb and son, Clifton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ballou and children are vacationing at Surfside Beach, S. C. They will return home the end of the week.

Miss Betty Cooper of Western Carolina College, Cullowhee, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper, here last week-end. She had as her guest a former classmate, Miss Alta Mosley of Atlanta, Ga.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall of Johnson City, Tenn., a son, John Michael, on June 26 in Johnson City. Mrs. Hall is the former Miss Ann Cooper of Burnsville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper here.

Misses Debbie and Karen Hall, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hall spent part of last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Holcombe and daughters, Jean and Pat, will return home this week after vacationing in New York and other points North during the past two weeks.

Miss Annie Hassell visited relatives in Erie, Pa., during the 4th of July week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Arthur and daughter, Nanette, of Asheville were the week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buckner here.

Mrs. Sam McEwen of Johnson City, Tenn. visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mattie Buckner, and other relatives here last week-end.

Mrs. Jess Styles has returned home after visiting her mother and other relatives in Washington, D. C. for the past week.

Misses Pamela Styles, Linda Deyton, Juliene Buckner, Cathy Deyton and Janice Hunter returned home last Saturday after a week in G. A. Camp at Fruitland Baptist Assembly at Hendersonville.

Mrs. W. A. Y. Sargent was feted Sunday in celebration of her birthday with a covered dish luncheon given by 20 of her friends at the home of Mrs. Grace Grassmuck at Cattail. Roger Derrough of Asheville, grandson of Mrs. Troy Ray, also got in on the celebration, it being his birthday too. Roger was the week-end guest of his grandmother.

The Burhoe family have returned to Burnsville after spending three weeks at the family cottage in Atlantic Beach. While there daughter Mary entertained several of her friends from St. Mary's College, Raleigh, at a house party for one week.

Miss Pamela Dellinger of Charlotte, a classmate of Miss Amelia Penland at UNC, Greensboro, is visiting Miss Penland this week in Burnsville.

Terry, Susan and Donald Bates of Boone and Boynton Beach, Fla., were the week-end guests of Mrs. Kathleen Penland and family here.

Miss Amelia Penland spent part of last week in Ocean Drive, S. C. with friends.

Mrs. L. B. Butner of Burnsville has had several members of her family visiting her recently, among them being her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Banson and family of Greensboro; another daughter, Mrs. Gies Askins and son Sammie, of South Lyons, Mich.; also her daughter from Marietta, M.S. James W. Reel and Mr. Reel.

Mrs. Neil Kaulf and daughter Ze Ann, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaulf of New York City, visited M. S. Kaulf's sister, Mrs. W. G. Davis and Mr. Davis in Asheville on Sunday.

Marcia and Richard Banks, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Banks, are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tipton in Charlotte.

Mrs. Ella Redmon of San Francisco was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell McCurry have returned from a vacation to Daytona Beach, Florida.

Rev. and Mrs. McDonald and family have returned from a visit to their families in Montgomery, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Silvers and family, and Mrs. Joe Silvers and daughter, Joyce and son Larry, have returned following a week's vacation in Florida with friends and relatives. A good time was had by all.

Dr. and Mrs. Garland Wampler and children are vacationing in Atlantic Beach. While there Dr. Wampler will be attending a post graduate course sponsored by Duke Medical School, and held at Atlantic Beach. They will return this week-end and Dr. Wampler will be in his office July 17th.

Clyde Whisnant, Burnsville, recently sold an Aberdeen-Angus bull to George King, Burnsville, North Carolina.

CHURCH NEWS

Rev. Lloyd Bailey will fill the pulpit of Higgins Memorial Methodist Church at the 11:00 service on Sunday morning, and the congregation will be privileged to hear Rev. Woody Finley at the seven o'clock service Sunday, the 16th and the 23rd.

Family night will be observed at Higgins Memorial July 19th at 6:30 with a covered dish supper. A film, entitled "Conversion Plus", will be shown.

Higgins Memorial has bought the lot directly across from the church. The lot will be used for parking and recreational purposes.

Rev. Alvin Jones, pastor of the Martin's Chapel-Windom-Celo Charge, is attending Duke Divinity summer school for pastors. Mrs. Jones is also attending summer school.

Martin's Chapel Methodist just finished a very successful revival. Rev. Alfred, a former pastor, was the preacher. Rev. Alfred is now pastor of a church in Albemarle, N. C.

At the Sunday morning worship service, Rev. McDonald of First Baptist, will continue a series of sermons entitled "Living under God's Law." The title of the message will be "Hand Made Gods", based on the Second Commandment. The whole series is based on the Ten Commandments.

Next Wednesday night the pastor will begin a study of favorite chapters in the Gospel of John — the chapter studied to be chosen by a member or members of the congregation. This study will continue for six or seven Wednesday nights.

The prayer service on Wednesday night, the 19th, will be followed by a Deacons' meeting.

The Women of the First Presbyterian Church, Burnsville, would like to thank Mrs. W. C. Murphy for the gift of a Singer sewing machine to be used at Sun Valley Nursing Home. Thanks also to Rev. Alvin Jones for repairs made on the machine. The women of the church bought a motor for the machine, and Mrs. Anglin, Supervisor of the Nursing Home, reports it is in excellent working order and being put to good use.

Rev. Stephen Woodward, pastor of Newdale Presbyterian Church, is holding a series of classes on witnessing.

The Women of the Church met at the church on Tuesday evening. Mrs. R. C. Parsley moderated the Bible study. Plans are being made for a rummage sale to begin the middle of August; also for a supper to be served July 31 to representatives of all the Mitchell and Yancey County Presbyterian churches who will meet there to formulate plans for an Every Member Canvass.

The Presbyterian Men of Yancey and Mitchell counties will hold their regular quarterly supper meeting Wednesday night, the 19th, at Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church. This being "Ladies Night" a large crowd is expected.

Women of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., in a meeting at Montreat last week, designated the 1967 birthday offering for Christian Higher Education work in Japan. The amount given was $288,892, and represents offering from 16 states. Appalachia Synodical, of which Yancey and Mitchell are a part, led per capita giving with $1.23. Arkansas was second with $1.08 and Mississippi was third with $1.06.