

ALLEN-HUGHES VOWS SPOKEN JUNE 30th

Photo by John Robinson

MISS DOAN BRIDE OF ROMNEY NORRIS GORNTO

Miss Lois Evelyn Doan of Burnsville became the bride of Romney Norris Gornto of Green Mountain at a 3:00 p. m. ceremony July 2nd at Bald Creek Methodist Church. Rev. Thomas W. Weeks, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister.

Steve Proffitt was vocalist, with Miss Susan Hensley at the piano.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Doan of Burnsville. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gornto of Green Mountain.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie, with lace appliques embroidered in pearls. Her veil was of illusion attached to a pearl coronet. She carried white orchids with satin streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Helen Deyton of Green Mountain, wore a floor length gown of green chiffon, and carried a cascade of green shasta daisies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. David Doan of Asheville and Mrs. William Harold Doan, of Morehead City, sisters-in-law of the bride, Miss Dana Brooks of Celso, Miss Linda Gornto of Green Mountain, Miss Beverly Peppers of Madison, Ga., and Miss Dena Pickett of Durham. They wore floor length yellow chiffon dresses, and carried bouquets of yellow shasta daisies.

Child attendants were Faith Peppers, Sherry Fender and Michelle Fender.

The groom chose for his best man Clarence Deyton of Celso.

Ushers were William Harold Doan, Morehead City, Jeff David

Doan, Jr., Asheville, brothers of the bride; James Samuel Gornto, Raleigh; Jerald Frank Turner of Roanoke, Va.; Robert Russell Walters, Huntington, Md.; Ivan Blaine Whitson of Green Mountain.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church social hall. Assisting at the reception were Miss Kathleen Peake, Mrs. Artis Peppers, Mrs. W. P. Honeycutt, Mrs. Burgin Silvers, Mrs. Clarence Deyton, Miss Betty Bennett, and Mrs. William Turner.

The bride chose for her going-away costume a yellow suit with white accessories and a orchid from her bridal corsage.

The bride's mother wore a blue suit with white accessories. The groom's mother chose a brown suit with matching accessories. They both wore yellow corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Cane River High School.

The groom teaches in South Toe Elementary School, Celso N. C.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at Green Mountain, N. C.

Nickel Markets

The largest market for nickel is in production of high-quality stainless steel, some 215 million pounds of nickel, in 1964, going into production of the versatile alloy throughout the free world. The second largest market, an estimated 98 million pounds, is in nickel plating.

Miss Nina Joyce Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allen, Route 1, Burnsville, and Mr. Johnny Walter Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Hughes, Route 2, Burnsville, were married at 8:00 p. m., on June 30th, at The Bakers Creek Baptist Church.

Rev. Niram Phillips conducted the double ring ceremony. Miss Glenna Thomas was pianist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white lace over satin. Her veil was attached to a pearl coronet. She carried a white Bible covered with white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Miss Rebecca Hughes, sister of the groom was maid of honor. She wore a pink satin dress, similar to that of the bride, with matching veil, and carried one long stem pink rose.

Mr. Preston Allen, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception followed at the bride's home. Hostesses were Mrs. Preston Allen and Mrs. Bill Shepherd.

MEDICAL PROGRESS

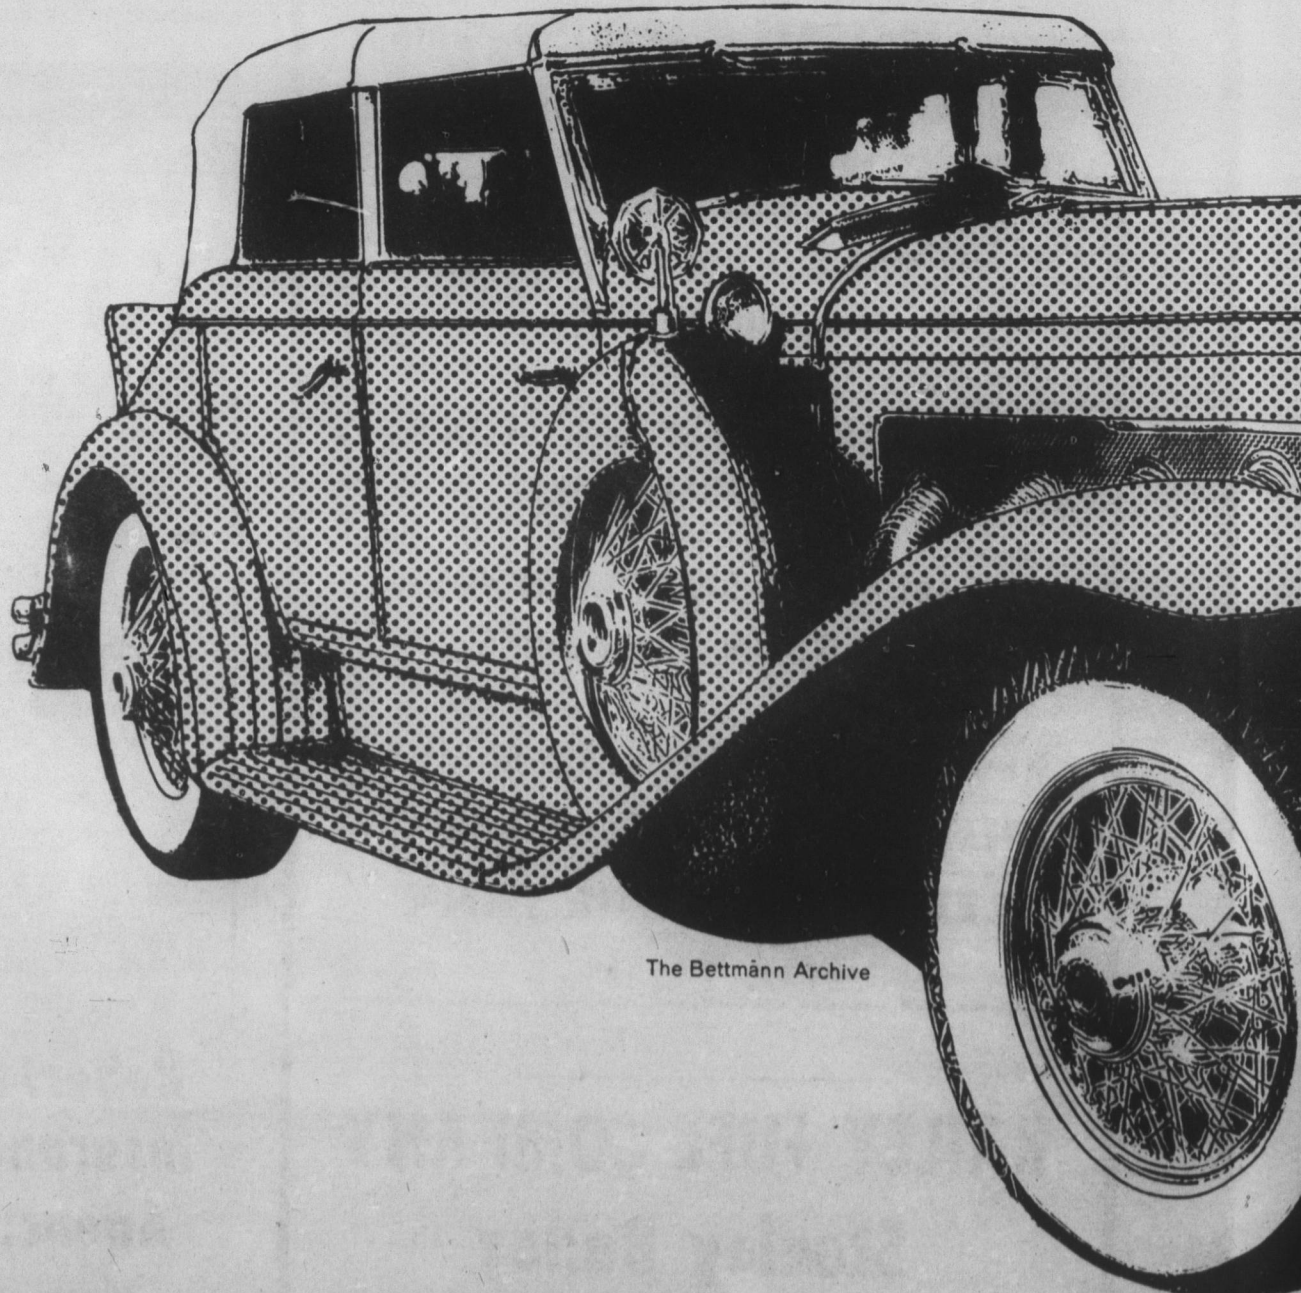

In Kluang, Malaysia, a 4-year-old girl born with a defect in a blood vessel next to her heart was operated on by a CARE-MEDICO surgeon. The child, whose condition meant probable death before 20, now has an excellent chance for a normal life.

Want a good second car?

Try our Get-Rich-Slowly Scheme!

Should you want some for fishing trips and your business. It's our get it. If you've got big savings program that's it to be.

You may have to pay less elegant for a while.

The Bettmann Archive