McClure Named Heart Fund Chairman, Mrs. Biggerstaff Treasurer

Doyce G. McClure of Burnsville has been named 1968 Heart Fund Chairman and President-elect for Yancey County, it was announced today by the Yancey County Heart Association President Mrs. Betty Bacon.

As Heart Fund Chairman, Mr. McClure will supervise the local association's 1968 fund-raising activities and will appoint community leaders to direct the various activities planned for the campaign during Heart month.

The local campaign will be carried out in conjunction with the drives of the North Carolina and American Heart Association, held each year during February.

Mr. McClure said that plans for the local drive are being formulated and leaders and activities will be announced shortly. He pointed out that the funds will go to conduct the Heart Association's research, public education and community service programs.

"Heart Disease", Mr. McClure said, "is still the leading cause of death in the Yancey County area, as it is in the nation and the world. Last year some 22,000 North Carolinians died as a result of cardiovascular disease. Our heart association represents an opportunity for every person in the Yancey County area to take a hand in stamping out this killer."

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ray Roberts of Johnson City, Tenn., visited his mother, Mrs. W. Z. Robertson, during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Roberts visited his parents in Hillsboro, N. C., during the holidays.

Mrs. M. J. Blake of Montgomery, Ala., visited her son, Rev. Harold McDonald and family here during the holidays.

Mrs. Jack Biggerstaff of Burnsville will serve as Treasurer of the Yancey County Heart Association, Mrs. Betty Bacon, President of the local Heart group has announced. As treasurer, Mrs. Biggerstaff will be responsible for the banking and maintaining accounts of funds raised during the 1968 Heart Fund Campaign. In addition, Mrs. Biggerstaff will handle memorial gifts to the local Heart Association. These are acceptable throughout the year, President Bacon said.

Mrs. Biggerstaff called for maximum effort in the 1968 Heart Fund campaign and indicated she will launch a local drive to encourage memorial gift giving to the Heart Association as "a thoughtful and practical way to honor those who have died of heart and blood vessel disease. This money goes directly into research on heart disease and Heart Association programs aimed at conquering this leading cause of death and disability in our County, State and Nation," Mrs. Biggerstaff said.
