First Baptist Congregation Accepts Bid

According to announcement by officers of the F.rst Baptist Church here, beginning on new building construction is not too far in the future.

On Monday night, February 5, the church Building Committee met and voted unanimously to recommend to the church congregation that the low base bid of $299,800 be accepted. With the funds now on hand, plus pledges that have been made, $125,000 will be sufficient to secure a turn-key job, complete to the fullest detail.

The motion was put before the church Sunday morning, and, following discussion, the motion was approved unanimously by standing vote.

The motion placed before the church was two-fold. F'rst, that the bid made by Morrison Construction Co., with acceptable alternate, be accepted and a contract be drawn up. Second, that the church trustees be authorized to borrow a sum up to $125,000 as needed.

Construction will begin promptly as weather conditions permit. In the meantime, work will go forward clearing the grounds and setting everything in readiness for ground breaking

The completed building, with all furnishings will cost an estimated $313,000.

Dean Hicks Will Appear In College Production

Dean Hicks of Newdale, N. C., Freshman at Mars Hill college will appear in the college production of the controvercial political satire "macbird" written by 26 yr. old Barbara Garson. "MACBIRD" opened off broadway in January of 1967, and has been playing there, as well as in hundreds of theatres both in and out of the U. S. A., ever since.

"MACBIRD" is a parody of Shakespeare's "MACBETH" and can be considered a sharply po nted sat re or merely a high spirited low comedy. It is most commonly played as a peculiar mixture of both.

The Mars Hill College production of "MACBIRD" is under the direction of James Warren Thomas, assistant professor of drama at the college. The cast includes: Dan Hayes, Soph., drama major North Wilkesboro, in the ttle role; Barbara Whisnant from Salisbury, as Lady MacBird; Ken Goble of Clinton, N. J., as John Ken O'Dunc; Joe Bingham from Miami as Robert Ken O'Dunc; and Joe Cecchine, another New Jersey native as Teddy Ken O'Dunc. Other members of the cast include Jim Roberts, Janet Van Proyem. and Mrs. Beverly Hough.

The performances are sched-

Tobacco Referendum

The referendum on marketing quotas for the next three crops of Burley tobacco will be conducted by mail during the period February 26, to March 1, 1968.

A ballot will be mailed each person known to have had an interest in a 1967 crop of Burley tobacco. Any person who shared in a Burley crop in 1967 who does not receive a ballot may obtain one by calling, wr.ting or vis ting the ASCS county office. All ballots must be returned to the ASCS county office, or be postmarked, no later than March 1, 1968 in order to be counted.

Notices of farm acreage allotments will be mailed to all Burley tobacco farm operators so that they may know what their 1968 allotments are in advance of the referendum.

If at least two-thirds of the

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum votes YES, quotas and allotments will be in effect for the 1968, 1969, 1970 crops of Burley tobacco. Penalties for marketing excess tobacco will be in effect, and price support will be available to growers who do not exceed their farm allotments.

If marketing quotas are not approved, that is, if more than one-th'rd of those voting vote NO, there will be no quotas or penalties, and no price support on the 1968 crop of Burley to-bacco. In that event, another referendum would be held next year on quotas for the following three crops.
