Sub-District Meets

By: Reporter

The annual Regional Training Union meeting of the Baptist Church will be held on Friday night, April 5, at the Mars Hill Baptist Church. The program will begin promptly at 4:00 and will last until 8:30. Supper will be served at a cost of 60c per plate.

The Yancey County Sub-District met at the Pensacola Methodist Church Sunday, March 25. The meeting began with a devotional by the young people which included Welze Harrison Metcalf, Janet Wilson, Frankie Wyatt and at the piano Susan McIntosh.

Afterward the business session was held. It was opened by the special speaker, The Rev. Paul Duckwall, from Statesville, N. C. He told the group about all the summer activities going on for youth and about the new youth literature. After this the business session was called to order by the Sub-District president, Norma Jean Metcalf.

Next a play entitled "The Answer" was presented, based on the use of prayer and the faith that it will be answered. Members of the cast were Linda Sue Allen, James Stuart Bagwell, Norma Jean Metcalf, Dwight Wilson and Perry Wilson.

In closing refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. The meeting was dismissed by the M.Y.F. benediction.

There were 42 present. The next meeting will be held on April 28 at Celso Methodist Church.

The Royal Ambassadors of First Baptist Church have a special treat in store for them, when, on Friday, March 29, they will have the opportunity to attend the State Brotherhood and R. A. Conference in Charlotte. Two cars, driven by the pastor and John May, will take the boys to Charlotte. The program for the evening consists of a premier showing of the new movie, "Bill Wallace of China", starring Gregory Walcott as Bill Wallace. Following the movie, Mr. Walcott himself will be on hand to deliver the final address.

Also, accompanying the boys will be Edward Buckner, Brotherhood President, and Mike Warren, R. A. Counselor.
