

Miss Doris Helena King Bride Of Keith Edwin Hill

Miss Doris Helena King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvil King, was united in marriage to Keith Edwin Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hill, Saturday, June 15 at 7:00 p. m. in Cane River Baptist Church. Rev. E. J. Hall conducted the ceremony. Steve Proffitt was vocalist and Mrs. J. F. Robinson was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long-sleeved taffeta gown trimmed with re-embroidered lace. She had a chapel train which was also trimmed with re-embroidered lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a coronet. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Fredia Hill, sister of the bridegroom, was Maid of Honor. She was attired in a floor length yellow satin gown and carried a nosegay of yellow and green carnations. Mrs. Leo King of Waynesville and Mrs. Roger Robinson were bridesmaids. They wore Nile green satin dresses like the honor attendant and carried nosegays of yellow carnations. Debbie Wilson was flower girl.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother chose a blue dress with a pink corsage. Mother of the groom wore a pink two-piece dress with a white corsage.

Best man was Claburn Angel, cousin of the groom. Ushers were Fred Wilson of Weaver-ville, Ernest Hilemon, Danny Randolph and Ronnie Kates.

Miss Mary Louise Barrier Bride Of Danny Buryl Hensley

Serving at the reception, which was held immediately following the ceremony, were: Mrs. Angel, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Kates and Mrs. Hilemon.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. the couple will live in Charlotte, where the groom is employed in the office of Johnson Motor Lines. Prior to her wedding, the bride attended Blanton's Business College and was employed by Buncrumb County Library Service. The groom is a graduate of Blanton's Business College.

a white orchid.

The bride's matron of honor was Mrs. Joyce Robbins, sister of the groom. She was attired in a yellow satin, floor-length gown which featured an empire waistline. Her veil was of English net in a color matching her dress. A long-stem white mum was her flower.

The bridesmaids, dressed identically to the matron of honor, were Miss Freida Hensley, sister of the groom, and Miss Susie Wright. Miss Angela Causby of Drexel was flower girl and Jackie Avery of Oak Hill served as ringbearer.

The best man was Howard Robinson, brother of the groom. Randy Eaker and Kenneth Barrier were ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a light blue two-piece suit and the groom's mother in a navy blue two-piece suit. Both wore white orchid corsages.

The bride, a senior at Oak Hill High School, chose for her traveling costume a tan two-piece suit. The groom is presently a foreman at Wamsutta Knitting Mills.

After a week-long wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the couple plan to make their future residence in the Oak Hill district.

Miss Mary Louise Barrier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Barrier of Route 5, Canton, N. C. and Danny Buryl Hensley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hensley of Enola Road, Canton, exchanged wedding vows June 15 at the Jonas Ridge Methodist Church.

Rev. E. O. Bosté, uncle of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold McKee provided the wedding music. White glads, entwined with ivy on each side made the setting for the candle-light wedding.

The bride, dressed in a white satin, floor-length gown with long sleeves and a detachable train of satin and lace, was given in marriage by her father. Her veil was made of English net. Miss Barrier carried a white Bible which was covered with lace and was centered with

Miss Carolyn Virginia Bailey Bride Of John Franklin Campbell

BALD CREEK — Miss Carolyn Virginia Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Yates Bailey, and John Franklin Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Campbell of Fayetteville exchanged marriage vows June 23, at 3 p. m. in Bald Creek Methodist Church.

The Rev. Furman J. Rogers conducted the ceremony with music presented by Miss Mary R. Rector, pianist, and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with Venise lace and silk illusion mantilla. She carried a nosegay of white daisies.

Miss Mary Kathryn Bailey, sister of the bride, of Greensboro, was maid of honor. She was attired in a blue dotted Swiss gown with white Venise lace and a blue net headdress. She carried a nosegay of white daisies and blue corn flowers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Lemons of Raleigh, Miss Linda Eure of Eure, and Miss Mary McCormick Auman of Fayetteville. Their attire matched that worn by the maid of honor.

Mr. Campbell was his son's best man. Ushers were James E. Campbell, brother of the bridegroom, Thad Mumaw, Roger McLean, all of Fayetteville, Roy Campbell of Laurinburg, and Paul Daniel Smith of Chapel Hill.

A reception in the home of Mrs. Glen E. Proffitt, grandmother of the bride, followed the ceremony with Miss Mary

A reception followed the ceremony in the Jonas Ridge School lunchroom. It was hosted by cousins of the bride, Miss Georgie Bustle, and Miss Jackie Clarke. Miss Dolores Allman presided at the guest register.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Roy Jamerson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jamerson of Burnsville and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Barrier of Hickory.

Glen Proffitt, Mrs. Vera Steele, Mrs. Ralph T. Proffitt, Mrs. James Proffitt, Mrs. Odis Pendergraft, and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh assisting.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a navy and white crepe suit with navy accessories. The couple will live in Bainbridge, Md.

The bride is a graduate of U. N. C. at Greensboro. The bridegroom attended UNC at Chapel Hill and is presently serving in the United States Navy.

For the ceremony the mother of the bride wore a blue crepe costume and the bridegroom's mother a pink lace costume both with matching accessories and orchid corsages.

Cunningham, Blevins Wedding Announced

Mrs. Opal Silver Cunningham and Ralph Luther Blevins exchanged marriage vows Saturday night, June 15, in the home of the uncle and aunt of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyatt at Newdale. Rev. Alvin Jones performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Silver, Jacks Creek, and is employed at Mohasco Mills of Burnsville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Blevins of Rt. 2, Burnsville. He is employed by International Chemical Corp., of Spruce Pine.