

Briar Bottom Day Camp Provided Opportunities

For Girl Scouts

By: Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, Jr.
The week of August 5 through 9 offered many opportunities for fun and learning to the Girl Scouts from all troops in Yancey County who attended Briar Bottom Day Camp. Approximately 70 girls were registered and there was very good attendance throughout.

The girls did a fine job of putting up and taking down their camp, with equipment provided by the Pisgah Girl Scout Council. During the week a program of crafts, hiking, outdoor cookery, overnight camping, etc., was provided, with the girls not only learning many outdoor skills, but, very importantly, learning how to work together with each individual doing her part. It was a real opportunity for girls from different areas of the county to come to know and respect each other.

Brownies are 7 and 8 year old Girl Scouts who do not spend the night at camp. For them one of the highlights of camp was learning to build a fire and cook an outdoor meal.

For Junior Girl Scouts, who are 9, 10, and 11 years old, the camp offered an overnight on the site with all the fun and excitement which such an experience involves.

21 Cadette Girl Scouts, who are 12, 13 and 14 years old, made a two day back-packing excursion into Lost Cove, where they camped overnight. These girls did a fine job of setting up camp while there. This was an unforgettable experience for them, and they may be justly proud of their competence.

A great many people are to be thanked for making this Day Camp possible. Our camp was held on forestry land, and the men of the Forest Service here were untiring in their efforts to make every facility available.

Mrs. Helton Carmichael was director of the camp, assisted by Mrs. George Hicks and Mrs. Nell Hoover. Mrs. Edgar Hensley was Business Manager, and Mrs. Eileen Biggerstaff was Registrar. Mrs. Garland Wampler was camp nurse, and Dr. E. R. Ohle was the doctor on call. Mrs. Mary Hess was in charge of crafts, and Mrs. Edgar Hunter, Jr. was song leader.

Rev. Alvin Jones did a great service for the Girl Scouts by providing bus transportation and serving as driver.

Mr. and Mrs. Helton Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. James Covington, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, Jr., accompanied the Cadettes into Lost Cove. Mr. Blaine Ray served as guide for hikes on forestry land.

To all these people go many, many thanks for all the work, time, and the contributions which they made toward making Briar Bottom Day Camp such a good experience for the Girl Scouts of Yancey neighborhood.
