Micaville Elementary School Sponsors Book Fair

The Micaville Elementary School, Micaville, N. C., will sponsor a student book fair from October 22 to October 24. Students will be able to browse and purchase books. The book fair will be open during the hours of 9:00 a. m. until 2:00 p. m. Books will be on display in Micaville School Gym.

The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. The fair will not only help spur student interest in reading and building home libraries, but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school earns 20% of all sales and profits will be used for library books.

The Micaville Elementary School Library is sponsoring this event, with Mrs. Fern Robinson serving as book fair chairman.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges. All reading areas of interest to students will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books. Wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. The committee is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

Dorothy Reiche And Carl McKinney Exchange Vows

Dorothy Reiche and Carl McKinney exchanged wedding vows in ceremonies held at Asbury Methodist Church in Maitland, Saturday evening. The Rev. William E. Brooks officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Reiche, Maitland, Florida. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. McKinney, Green Mt., N. C.

The bride was given in marriage by Dr. Harry Campbell, and chose a gown of white silk organza and peau d'ange lace. The bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt cascaded into a chapel train. Her veil was of French silk illusion attached to a circle of orange blossoms. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Charlotte Williams, Winter Park, Florida, who served as maid of honor, was her only attendant. Ronald Westbrook, Baconton, Ga., served as best man. Ushers were Donald and Richard McKinney of Satellite Beach, Florida. Following a reception in the church social area, the couple departed on a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla. They will make their home in Casselberry, Fla. Dorothy, born in Georgia, was a 1960 graduate of Winter Park High School, and was formerly employed by the FBI. The bridegroom served in the U. S. Army and now is employed with Champagne Color in Orlando.

Miss Bennett Wins Scholarship

Miss Betty Bennett, a 1968 graduate of Cane River High School and the third annual Anastasia Tomberlin Scholarship Award, enrolls at Brevard College. Miss Bennett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bennett of Swiss, is majoring in art.

The Anastasia Tomberlin Scholarship Award is presented annually to a member of the senior class who is outstanding in character, citizenship, and scholarship. This award was established as a memorial to the late Anastasia Tomberlin, a Yancey County teacher for many years. The funds for the scholarship are provided through contributions of interested persons. All members of the faculty suggest candidates for the award. However, the final decision is made by a committee which is presently composed of five faculty members, Mr. Jimmy Neill, chairman, Mrs. Phyllis Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cox, and Mrs. Pauline Hensley. This committee also acts as trustees of the funds.

small scale operations he is supported by Marine air units, tanks artillery, amphibian tractors and engineers.

His unit is also engaged in a civic action program designed to assist the Vietnamese people in completing self-help projects, such as the building of wells, culverts, small bridges and schools. Equipment and materials are made available through the Marine Corps Reserve Civic Action Fund.
