ts Celebrate nal Fun Day

rous countries, were divided into groups. Each group visited eight foreign booths. . learning a French song, a game from Ghana, a dance from Denmark, the craft work of the Mexican god's eye, the draping of the Sari from India, the "manipulation" of the Chinese chop sticks, and an international game spelling United Nations.

Last, but not least, the girls visited the international food booth. Here, girls sampled foods native of eight foreign countries: Scandinavia, Germany, France, India, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Denmark and China.

A candlelight ceremony emphasizing world peace and the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund concluded International Fun Day. The true meaning of this International Fun Day for Yancey County Girl Scouts is best expressed in the words of Lord Baden-Powell, "Go from here full of thought that you are going to promote peace and good will."
