

Homemakers Hold Belated Feb. Meeting

The Burnsville Homemaker's Club held their February meeting on Friday afternoon, March 6, at the NuWray Inn, with Mrs. Annie Bennett as hostess. An explanation may be in order here - the February meeting had to be postponed twice - due to the flu epidemic, resulting in two meetings of the Club in March. Twenty five members and guests were present.

Mrs. P.C. Coletta, President, called on Mrs. Elizabeth Silver, Devotional Chairman, for the devotional.

Mrs. E. L. Dillingham, Clothing Chairman, gave a very interesting and informative talk on new trends in fashions for women and girls.

The Crafts Chairman, Mrs. Silver, announced a District meeting to be held at Kanuga

Lake, near Hendersonville, on April 28 and 29. The purpose of this meeting, she said, is to train leaders to teach crafts and to promote quality in crafts.

Nutrition Committee Chairman, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, reported that since this is "peanut month" the emphasis will be on recipes using peanuts.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Deyton, Extension Home Economist, stated that "Homemakers" Challenge Days" would be held at Assembly Inn in Montreat in May, and that the Club would be hearing more about this meeting.

Mrs. Coletta stated that in line with the 50th Anniversary of Homemakers Clubs, the regular March meeting will be in the form of an old fashioned quilting party to be held with Mrs. Ralph Jacks, at which time Mrs. Nell Bennett will instruct the members in the almost forgotten art of quilting. Mrs. Jacks will furnish the quilt top. The meeting will start at nine o'clock with a covered dish luncheon at twelve o'clock. Mrs. Lena Letterman will be co-hostess with Mrs. Jacks, with Mrs. Troy Ray, Mrs. Jennie Penland and Mrs. Mary Gillespie acting as assistants to Mrs. Bennett.

Mrs. Deyton introduced Mrs. Fraida M. Terrell, Area Agent in Creative Crafts, who talked interestingly on Opportunities in Creative Crafts, with many attractive crafts to illustrate her talk.

During the social hour Mrs. Bennett, assisted by Mrs. Winnie Lou Ray and Mrs. Lillian Jelly, served a dessert course.

50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Laughrun of Burnsville will observe their 50th Wedding Anniversary on March 12. They will be honored with a reception on Saturday, March 14 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Higgins Memorial Methodist Church. The reception is being given by the couple's children. There are no formal invitations being sent, but all friends and relatives are invited to attend.

The Laughruns have three children: Maj. N.B. Laughrun, Montgomery, Alabama; Mrs. William Cherry, Colonial Hgts., Virginia; and Mr. Kenneth Laughrun, Burnsville. They have 8 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

With March being the month of kites and wind, forty - two children made windmills this past Monday morning and afternoon at 10:00 a.m. and at 3:00 p.m. at the Children's Hour in the Yancey County Public Library.

Assisting Miss Theresa Coletta for the two Children's Hours were Mrs. Mary Young, Mrs. Nellie Styles, Mrs. Jim Roland, Mrs. Ronnie Proffitt, Mrs. Elizabeth Westall and Mrs. Young and Mrs. Jones from the Yancey County Child Development Center. Since the children did spend the entire hour making the windmills, they will learn about windmills and Holland at the next Children's Hour.

Those children attending the Children's Hour were: Anne Westall, Butch and Alecia Yelton, Marc Buchanan, Andy Brown, Johnnie Clyde Silvers, Sharon and Jeffrey Yuziuk, Russell Roland, Stuart and Eric Hensley, Randy Proffitt, Jackie Ballou, Laura Holcombe, Joy Bennett, Lisa Grindstaff, Linda Hess, Janice Higgins, Vickie Hughes, Kevin Laughrun, Barry McKinney, Landy Wilson, Bobby Joe Young, Tammy Jones, Tammy and Karen Silvers, Tony Carroll, Peggy, Sherry and Joyce Shehand, Gregory Phillips, Tamara Price, Chris Deyton, David Styles, Brenda Williams, Phyllis Robinson, Lou Ann Robinson, Linda Sue Hensley, James and Phyllis Gilbert, Lisa McIntosh and Norma McCurry.
