Armed Forces Report

Chief Warrant Officer Roger W. Autrey was selected as Officer Instructor - Of - The Month at the U.S. Army Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va.

CW3 Autrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Autrey of Rt. 5, Burnsville, is an instructor of maintenance management in the Construction Equipment Division of the School's Department of Mechanical and Technical Equipment. He was selected from the more than 1,400 instructors there at the school and received a letter of commendation citing him for his noteworthy performance, a performance which contributed greatly to the Engineer School's teaching mission.

Selections for the honor of Instructor-of-the-Month are based on such criteria as hours of instruction performed, observations by staff representatives, staff evaluation boards and surveys of students. Instructors are chosen from three categories: officer, enlisted personnel, and Dept. of the Army civilian instructors from the school's three teaching departments.

Prior to his assignment at the school, Mr. Autrey served with the 35th Engineer Group in Vietnam. His service awards include the Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster and the Binh, Vietnam, where he is serving with the 199th Light Infantry Brigade.

Spec. McPeters, an infantryman in Company A, 5th Battalion of the brigade's 12th Infantry, entered the Army in February, 1969, completed his basic training at Fort Bragg, N.C., and was last stationed at Ft. McClellan, Ala. He holds the Combat Infantryman Badge.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1967 graduate of East Yancey High School.

Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster.

Mr. Autrey and his wife, the former Kathleen McGee of Burnsville, live in Lorton, Va.

Navy Airman Thomas G. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Johnson of Burnsville, N.C., graduated from the 22-week Aviation Electrician's Mate School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center at Jacksonville, Florida.

Earl L. McPeters Jr., whose parents live on Route 6, Burnsville, N.C., was promoted to Army specialist four near Long

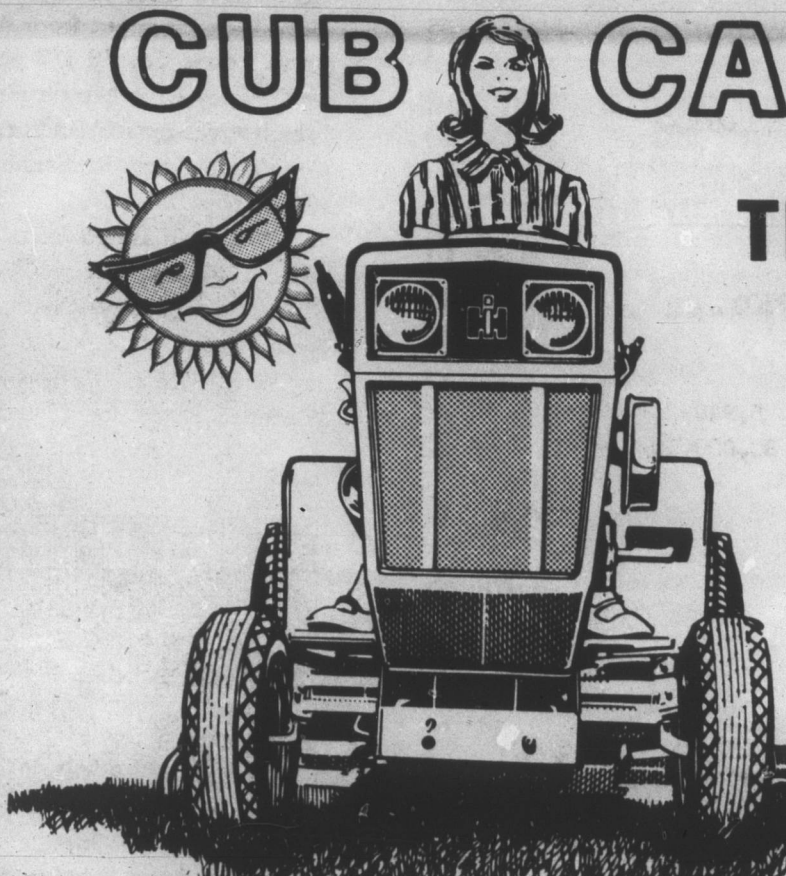

U.S. Air Force Technical Sergeant Robert B. Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sparks of Route 2, Burnsville, is on duty at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam.

Sergeant Sparks, a communications technician, is with a unit of the Air Force Communications Service which provides global communications and air traffic control for the USAF. He is a veteran of the Korean War.

The sergeant is a 1952 graduate of Micaville High School. His wife, Evelyn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sutton of Route 4, Mount Olive, N. Carolina.
