

Mrs. Jerrold Frank Turner

Gornto And Turner United

Miss Melinda Anne Gornto became the bride of Mr. Jerrold Frank Turner on March 28, at 2:00 p. m. in Green Mountain Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was conducted by the Reverend M. J. Murry of Banner Elk, N. C.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hugh Gornto of Green Mountain. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harvey Turner of Roanoke, Virginia.

Miss Gornto was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. E. F. Peake of Green Mountain and Dunedin, Florida. The bride wore a family gown, hand made in Korea. The gown was of white organza, net, and lace with a full square-cut net chapel train. The portrait neckline and bracelet-length sleeves were embellished with lace, cut crystals, and sequins. The veil was of illusion, attached to a cluster of net and seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and pale pink bridal roses encircled with white rose buds.

A former college roommate of the bride, Miss Patsy Bowles of Roanoke, Va., served as organist. Wedding music was provided by R. Norris Gornto, brother of the bride.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert R. Walter of Boones Mill, Virginia, sister of the bride. Miss Donna King of Roanoke was bridesmaid. Both attendants wore floor-length gowns of pink and white. The skirts were made of white satin and the empire bodice was of pink brocade with cap sleeves of pink organza. Head pieces consisted of white satin roses attached to pink brocade petals with pink organza veils. A matching cluster of roses adorned the back of each gown. The attendants' flowers were pink camellias from the garden of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Clifford E. Wrenn of Gamer, North Carolina.

The father of the groom served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Danny Bain of Roanoke, Va., cousin of the groom, and Mr. R. Norris Gornto of Rutherfordton, North Carolina.

The mother of the bride wore a pink silk princess-style dress with white accessories.

The groom's mother wore a matching coat and dress of turquoise linen with turquoise and pink accessories. Both of the mothers wore a corsage of pink baby orchids.

The parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church social hall immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Edward Wallace of Stokesdale, North Carolina, and Mrs. Clifford Wrenn, aunts of the bride, served as hostesses. Punch was served by Mrs. Charles Rock of Nicomus, Florida, and Mrs. Donald King of Roanoke.

The cake was especially designed by Bowles Bake Shop of Roanoke. Mr. Bowles is the father of Miss Patsy Bowles who served in the wedding.

The church was decorated with two candleabras with white tapers and flower arrangements of camellias and magnolia leaves.

The bride has been entertained with two showers. One was given by her college roommates, Miss Bowles and Miss Debbie Merritt of Johnson City, Tenn. The other shower, held in the church library, was given by Mrs. Clarence Bailey, Mrs. Everette Garland, and Mrs. Thelma Howell, all of Green Mtn.

For going away, the bride chose a coat and dress ensemble of yellow, white and brown linen. She wore a corsage of two white gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Cane River High School and of East Tennessee State University, Johnson City. She has a B. A. degree in English and Journalism. The groom has a B. S. degree and a master's degree in Business Administration from ETSU. He is currently serving with the U. S. Army in Brooklyn, New York. After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the couple will live in Bayome, New Jersey.
