

Toy trains, taken from the collections of the Museum of New York City, Middletown's Toy Museum, and from several private collections, came to life for 39 children this past

Jr 4-H Report

By Kathy Pate and Theresa McMahan

The Pensacola Junior 4-H Club held its annual meeting on Wednesday, April 23, 1970. It was held in the Pensacola School Library.

We discussed old business and new, and then Pat Guyer talked to us about summer 4-H Camp.

Mr. Don McGalliard of the Wildlife Conservation gave us a talk about wildlife conservation. He told us how we could help wildlife survive. Mr. McGalliard also told us how we could prepare food for some animals. He showed us how to make a squirrel box which is used to help raise many other squirrels.

The Pensacola 4-H Club has made plans to go skating in May and to go on a nature hike on May 20. We have also made plans for a bake sale and car wash on the 23rd of May.

Monday morning and afternoon at 10 a. m. and at 3 p. m. at the Children's Hour in the Yancey County Public Library. This toy train film, "Toccata for Toy Trains," composed and conducted by Elmer Bernstein, was produced in 1957. Following this film, the children all made gifts to give their mothers on Mother's Day. Assisting Miss Theresa Coletta were Mrs. Mary Young, Mrs. Nellie Styles and, from the Yancey County Child Development Center, Miss Nancy Wyatt, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Jones.

Those children attending the Children's Hour were: Marc Buchanan, Russell Roland, Alecia and Butch Yelton, Andy Brown, Greta Kay McIntosh, Sharon McClure, Anne Westall, Stuart and Eric Hensley, Mary Banks, Jackie Ballou, Laura Holcombe, Joy Bennett, Lisa Grindstaff, Janice Higgins, Kevin Laughrun, Vickie Hughes, Gregory Phillips, Tamara Price, Chris Deyton, David Styles, Lundy Wilson, Bobby Joe Young, Jeffrey Yuziuk, Phyllis Marie Gilbert, Peggy, Sherry and Joyce Shehan, Lisa McIntosh, Lou Ann Robinson, Victor and John Kegley, Dennis Haney, Tony Carroll, James Gilbert, Ron-da Haney, and Kenny Ray.

Pinafore Classes Held NCSU Team

The Red Cross Pinafore Orientation Classes for high school age girls will be held Saturday, May 16th from 10:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. at the Burnsville Presbyterian Church. A lunch break will be allowed (bring your own lunch snack) with a drink provided. Orders for the pinafore uniforms will be taken on this day.

The Red Cross Pinafore Orientation Classes are under the direction of Mrs. Lulabelle Wiseman, Chairman of the Mayland

Chapter of the American Red Cross, and Mrs. W. P. Honeycutt. Both of these ladies will be present to teach the classes for which there is no charge.

Any high school girl who is interested in participating in this program is asked to register before May 16th with one of the following persons:

Miss Theresa Coletta, ph. 682-2282; Miss Christine Edwards, Cane River High School; Miss Jeannie Ray, East Yancey High School.

A team of North Carolina State University animal science students finished fourth in the Southeastern Livestock Evaluation Contest April 24 and 25 at the University of Tennessee.

Bill Buckner of Burnsville and Eddie Johnson of Mount Airy led the NCSU team. Buckner finished third among 90 individual entries and Johnson finished sixth.

Students from 11 southern universities competed.
