

Mrs. Morris D. Atkins

McInerny And Atkins United In Marriage

The wedding of Miss Cecilia A. McInerny and Morris D. Atkins took place May 2, 1970 at Stella Maris Roman Catholic Church, Sullivan's Island, S.C. The Rt. Rev. J. L. McLaughlin conducted the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McInerny Sr. of Sullivan's Island, S.C. and the bridegroom is the son of the late Thomas M. Atkins and Mrs. Thomas M. Atkins of Pensacola, N.C.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in traditional white satin peau de soie and Elizabeth Taylor type lace. The sculptured bodice of Chantilly was fashioned with three quarter length sleeves finished with handclipped scalloped medallions touching the molded neckline. The satin peau skirt was designed with a shaped skirt with a built in full chapel train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to lace matching the gown, enhanced with iridescents and tiny seed pearls.

The bride's Matron of Honor was Mrs. W. A. Banks of Burnsville, N.C., sister of the bridegroom. Maid of Honor was Miss Margaret Ann McInerny of Sullivan's Island, S.C., sister of the bride. Miss Mary Johanna McInerny and Miss Frances Lynn McInerny, both sisters of the bride, from Sullivan's Island; and Miss Sherry Lisa Banks of Burnsville, niece of the bridegroom served as the bride's attendants. Flower girl was Miss Anna Maria McInerny Sullivan's Island, niece of the bride.

The Maid and Matron of Honor wore gowns of Morning Blue Imported chiffon featuring flowing lines banded at the waist Empire style with silver braid trim and Kaboukie sleeve panels dipping to the hemline. Their veils were attached to matching headpieces.

The Junior Bridesmaids wore gowns of Pale Blue Organza designed with high necklines, long full sleeves, and softly gathered skirts finished with satin peau de soie at the neckline and banded hemline. Their headpieces were of matching satin peau.

Mr. W. A. Banks of Burnsville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as his Best Man, Groomsmen were Mr. Randy Banks of Burnsville, nephew of the bridegroom; Mr. John Holmes of Charlotte, N.C., friend of the bridegroom; Mr. Edward R. McInerny Jr. of Sullivan's Island and Mr. Michael R. McInerny of Columbia, S.C., both brothers of the bride. Ringbearer was Master Joseph Scott McInerny of Sullivan's Island, nephew of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a pink polyester double knit dress and a hat of pink chiffon petals. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue imported silk suit with a matching whimsey of blue flowers and net. She wore an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony, held in the Stella Maris Church Hall.

The bride has been employed as a teacher, having graduated from Gen. Wm. Moultrie High School and Columbia College. Mr. Atkins is a graduate of Cane River High School and Western Carolina University. He is presently employed as a Sales Engineer at Wang Laboratories, Inc.

Following a wedding trip to Nassau the couple will reside in Charlotte, N.C.
