Vicki Banks

Yancey Youths Attend Programs Sponsored By Legion Auxiliary

Cynthia Diane Williams, daughter of Mrs. Arlena Anglin; Vicki Lynn Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Banks and Vicky Gurley, daughter of Mrs. Earl Gurley, will attend the thirty-first annual session of Girls State in Greensboro, June 21 - 27, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Cynthia, Vicki and Vicky are rising seniors at East Yancey High School. All are Beta Club and Glee Club members and all were marshalls for the 1969-70 graduating class.

Vicki Banks is on the staff of the East Yancey literary magazine and is 1970-71 cheerleader. She was homecoming queen in 1969-70.

Styles Gets BS At Mars Hill

Virgil Lee Styles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maurice Styles of Charlotte, formerly of Burnsville, graduated from Mars Hill College on Sunday, May 17. He received a double major in Chemistry & Mathematics and made the dean's list almost every semester of the four years he attended college.

Virgil will continue his studies at the University of North Carolina this fall for his Masters Degree. He is employed for the summer with Standard Chemical Products Inc. of Charlotte.

Randy McIntosh

Girls State was founded to provide the privilege for high school girls to learn, by their active participation, the rights and responsibilities of an American citizen.

Randy McIntosh, son of Mrs. Louetta R. Harris and the late James E. McIntosh of Cane River, will attend Boy's State this summer at Wake Forest. He is a rising senior at Cane River High School and a member of such clubs as the Confederate staff, Student Council, Science Club, French Club, Monogram Club. He is on the school football team. Last year, Randy received the Sophomore Citizenship Award.

When he graduates, Randy plans to attend Mars Hill College.

Boy's State is sponsored by the American Legion Post. No. 122.
