

5 Generations Meet

Five generations in one family got together to celebrate Fathers Day this past June 21. A special Family Dinner was held at the home of Mr. Shelby Styles of Route 2, Burnsville, with all members of the Styles family present.

Mr. Woody McPeters, who became a great, great grandfather in 1967 when Tim Gillespie was born, was also present at the reunion.

The five generations who were present included Mr. McPeters of Burnsville; his daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Styles, also of Burnsville; her daughter, Mrs. Jack Gillespie of Burnsville; her son, Gary Gillespie of Hickory and his son, Tim.

More than 25 people attended the Family Reunion.

Young Chosen

Earl Young, local dairyman, was chosen by Pet Dairy Company as their representative to attend a study of producer associations in Shreveport Louisiana on June 17 and 18.

The North Carolina Farm Bureau Dairy Service in the Asheville area is studying the possibility of setting up a producer association. The meeting was held with the North Carolina Pure Milk Producers Association Board of Directors.
