

Bank Officers Host To NW Bank Board

James A. Anglin, director of The Northwestern Bank along with local board officers, was host to the Board of Directors and executive officers and their wives here Wednesday. The meeting of the Directors in the Community Building marked the second quarterly meeting of the board this year. Northwestern Bank now has more than one hundred twenty offices in western and piedmont North Carolina. Board members attending the meeting here represented the different areas in which offices are located.

Prior to the meeting, board members came by the new bank building where they were served coffee by wives of the local board.

The visiting ladies attended a coffee at the home of the James Anglins, with Mrs. Anglin as hostess.

Prior to a luncheon in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church the group visited the Country Store. After the luncheon, the ladies were directed on a tour of Penland School of Arts and Crafts. They also visited the Pendulum Antique Shop in Burnsville.

Directors and officers were served lunch at the Nu-Wray Inn.

Among the executive officers attending the meeting here were Edwin Duncan, president; Garland Johnson and Edwin Duncan Jr., Vice Presidents; D. V. Deal, Secretary, and Mrs. Sue Alfriend, Vice President and Manager of the Bank's advertising department.

Note Of Thanks

We would like to express our deepest appreciation to our friends and neighbors for the food, flowers and kind expressions of sympathy extended to us in our sorrow at the death of our loved one.
