

Children's Services Council To Meet

A meeting of the Mitchell-Yancey Children's Services Council Inc., the first to be held in Yancey, will be at 4 p. m. Wednesday, November 18, in the First Presbyterian Church of Burnsville. Mrs. Rossell N. Bason Jr., President, will preside.

Among the important matters on the agenda is the election of a Board of Directors.

A report will be made on the Learning Disability Workshop held at the Penland School of Crafts on October 30 under the sponsorship of the Mitchell-Yancey Children's Services Council, the North Carolina State Board of Health, Appalachian State University and the N. C. State Department of Public Instruction.

A report will also be made on the Child Development Team to serve Mitchell and Yancey Counties which recently began their training in Asheville.

A report will be made by the committee appointed to investigate further the possibilities of establishing Day Care Centers in the Buladean community and in Spruce Pine. This committee includes Mrs. P. Gerald Clark, Mrs. Carroll P. Roberts, Mrs. F. Carl Harman and Mrs. Hugh A. Dobbin.

MAILING SUGGESTIONS:

- 1 - Patrons on rural routes stamp all letter mail during Dec.
- 2 - Separate your greeting cards by cities where you have 25 or more for the same city. Tie these cards or letters in bundles with string or rubber bands.
- 3 - Make every effort to get your Christmas mailing done in plenty of time for your parcels and cards to reach their destination before Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS,
Paul E. Buck, Postmaster
