

United In Holy Matrimony

Miss Deborah Mae Yvonne Cooper became the bride of Gary Wayne Grindstaff in a 7 p. m. candlelight ceremony on Friday, February 12 in the West Burnsville Church of God.

The ceremony was conducted by the Reverend Kermit A. Kennedy, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper. She is a junior at Cane River High School. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grindstaff of Rt. 1, Green Mountain. He is a senior at Cane River High School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length, long-sleeve white gown of brocade with an empire waist line trimmed in velvet and lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a bow of seeded pearls with a forehead tear-drop. She carried a white satin Bible given to her by her mother. This was covered with white orchids with streamers of white satin love-knots.

The maid of honor was Miss Debbie Bodford, friend of the bride. She wore a long-sleeve street-length, empire waist yellow dress of polyester and trimmed in gold braid. Her headpiece was a yellow veil of illusion centered with a yellow bow. She carried a long-stem yellow rose bud.

Bridesmaids were Miss Fre-dia Allen of Marshall, cousin of the bride, Miss Suzanne Banks, Miss Melissa Melton, and Miss Loretta Kampf, all friends of the bride. They were dressed identical to the honor attendant, only in green polyester. Their headpieces were green veils of illusion centered by a green bow. They also carried long-stem yellow rose buds.

The flower girls were Miss Pam Hensley and Miss Pat Hensley, nieces of the groom. They were dressed in yellow polyester dresses trimmed in white lace and carried a basket of assorted spring flowers.

The pianist was Mrs. Judy Sparks, friend of the bride and groom. She played a combination of traditional, religious and popular wedding pieces. The soloist was Fredrick Buck, friend of the bride and groom.

The best man was Larry Peterson, friend of the groom. Head ushers were G. P. Melton, friend of the groom, and Michael Allen, cousin of the bride. Other ushers were Bobby Buchanan and Van Grindstaff of Bakersville, friends of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a winter white dress trimmed in pink satin with white lace and tiny pearl buttons with black patent accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a suit of white and navy blue with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the home of the bride. Serving were Miss Diane Cooper, sister of the bride; Mrs. Dorothy Allen, aunt of the bride of Marshall; Mrs. Arlene Hensley, and Mrs. Mary Sue Wilson of Arden, sisters of the groom; Mrs. Dale Melton and Miss Zoe Ann Kaulf, friends of the bride.

Also attending the guest register was Miss Zoe Ann Kaulf, friend of the bride.

The bride chose as her going away outfit a red velvet dress trimmed in white lace and red accessories.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live in Burnsville.
