

Mrs. George D. Parker

United In Marriage

Miss Deborah Ann McCurry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy McCurry, and George Douglas Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parker, were married at 2 p. m. Saturday, March 6, in the First Baptist Church in Burnsville. The Rev. Harold McDonald conducted the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of white satin, with a detachable train, appliqued with lace and seed pearls. Her full-length veil of bridal illusion, appliqued with lace and seed pearls was attached to a cluster of organza petals trimmed with pearls and crystals.

Club News

Hostesses for the March meeting of the Women's Club were Mrs. T. M. Tyner, Mrs. Tessa Swink, and Miss Annie Hassell, at the home of Mrs. Tyner. In the absence of the president, Mrs. P. C. Coletta, vice president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Tyner read a report from the building committee, which gave specifications for remodeling the Burnsville Community Center. Other committees made reports, with plans being tentatively made for an Art Scholarship fund, The Fine Arts Festival, to be held on March 13 at Brevard, was highlighted, with many of the club members planning to attend.

Mr. John Martin, retired lawyer, was introduced as the speaker for the evening. His overall subject was International Affairs, with especial emphasis on Aerial Piracy, and Narcotics and Drugs.

A social hour followed his presentation.

Mrs. Carlyle Bledsoe was voted into the club as a new member. Nineteen members and two guests attended the meeting.

Her bouquet, a cascade of white roses.

Miss Margaret Riddle, maid of honor, wore an Empire gown of blue satin brocade and carried a bouquet of blue and white shasta daisies. Miss Sandra Fox, bridesmaid, wore an Empire gown of yellow satin brocade and carried a bouquet of yellow and white shasta daisies.

Junior attendants were Miss Angela Penland and Dean McCurry.

Mrs. Bill Penland, of Pensacola, aunt of the bride, made the bridal gown, veil, and attendants' attire.

Morris Byrd of Asheville was best man and ushers were Roger Miller and Bobby Young of Burnsville.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Asheville-Buncombe Technical Institute, where she is now secretary to the business manager.

The groom attended Asheville Buncombe Technical Institute and is now employed by Keck Mobile Homes Supply.

The couple will live in Asheville, NC.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Foxx of Route 3, Burnsville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Rita Lynn, to Mr. Paul Pritchard Briggs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs of Mars Hill.

Miss Foxx is a graduate of Cane River High School and of East Tennessee State University. She is employed in the Buncombe County School System. Mr. Briggs is a graduate of Wilson County Technical Institute and attended Mars Hill College. He is employed by Eller Oil Company in Mars Hill.

A June wedding is planned.

News From Brush Creek Community

By Mrs. Ora Lee Hopson
675-4550

Charles Hopson, leader of the Brush Creek 4-H Club, has returned from Washington, D. C. where he attended the National 4-H Leader Forum.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Dayton, our Homemakers Extension leader, visited some of the homemakers in our community last Thursday.

Mr. R. K. Grindstaff is improving from a serious eye

Cane River Clippings

Members of the Sophomore English Class that were studying Julius Caesar were taken to see the movie, "Julius Caesar" at Plaza II theater in Asheville March 12th. The class extends their thanks to Mrs. Phyllis Bailey and Mr. James Neill for making the trip possible.

condition. Let's not forget, neighbors, he just loves to have friends drop by for a visit.

Clarence Byrd has been with his sister, Mrs. Dempsey Hopson, for the past several weeks while recuperating from a serious illness.

Jimmy Blair, a student at N. C. State, has been home for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blair.

Mrs. Floy Whitson is home after undergoing surgery in Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville.

Area Reporters Assist 'Record'

Several communities in Yancey County are now being represented with their own local news column. We urge everyone to help make the work of our various area reporters easier by calling in news items to them. Dorothy Westall will continue the superb job she does for Here & There.

Other area representatives have been contacted and will be reporting news from their section of Yancey County starting next week.

Reporters thus far include: Mrs. Dempsey Hopson, Brush Creek; Mrs. J. T. Blalock, Micalville; Mrs. Roy Wyatt, New-dale; Mrs. Dee Hensley, Green Mountain; Mrs. Michael Morrow, Cane River and Mrs. Clayton Whitson, Ramseytown. Reporting news from the high schools will be Cathy Dayton, Janice Hunter and Ernie Howard, East Yancey; Kay Honeycutt, Pam Fox and Marvin Hensley, Cane River.

soothing antiseptic relief for
CHAPPED LIPS
WIND OR SUNBURNED LIPS —
FEVER BLISTERS, COLD SORES.

IN THE GREEN TUBE

SPECIALS

AT LOW
LOW PRICES

POLLARD'S DRUGS

JERGENS LOTION

Reg. $1.69 1.29

BUFFERIN

Reg. $1.59

99¢

PONDS COLD CREAM

Reg. $1.99

1.59

Beautiful Hair
BRECK

BRECK FRESH HAIR INSTANT DRY SHAMPOO

Reg. $1.75

1.29

Q-TIPS

Reg. 65¢

2 for 1.00

PERTUSSIN WILD BERRY COUGH SYRUP

Reg. $1.49

99¢