

United In Holy Matrimony

Young's Chapel Baptist Church, Rt. 2, Burnsville, was the setting for the wedding of Linda Sue Presnell to Lloyd Charles Morris in a four o'clock ceremony on January 30.

Traditional wedding music was furnished by Miss Renee Buchanan.

Mrs. Helen McKinney, soloist, sang "Whither Thou Goest".

Rev. B. G. McMahan was officiating minister for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Claude Presnell and the late Mr. Presnell is a 1968 graduate of East Yancey High School. Linda has lived in Hickory for the past two years and is employed with Alba-Waldensian Hosiery Mills in Valdese.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morris of Bakersville. He attended Bowman High School and has been employed by DuPont Construction in Camden, S. C.

Given in marriage by her brother, Harold, the bride wore a gown of white satin, empire style, with lace trimmed sleeves and bodice was accented with tiny beads and seed pearls. The generously full train was attached at the shoulders with lace trim and tiny beads.

The bridal headpiece of nylon taffeta with lace petals trimmed with seed pearls, was centered with rosette and lace. The nylon tulle veil cascaded to wrist length. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds with pink and white streamers.

Mrs. Melba Webb of High Point was her sister's matron of honor. Her dress was pink with lace bodice and chiffon covered full skirt. She carried a single long-stemmed rose.

Mrs. Shirley Ray of Hickory sister of the bride; Willa Mae Presnell, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Marilyn Sparks, sister-in-law of the groom, served as bridesmaids. Their dresses were pink and rose taffeta, empire style. They also carried a single long-stemmed pink rose.

Ushers were Larry and Maurice Presnell, brothers of the bride, Richard Sparks, brother-in-law of the groom and Harold Willis, friend of each.

The bride's mother chose a light beige dress with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The groom's mother wore dark beige and brown accessories. She also wore yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony, the cutting of the wedding cake was held at the church. Mrs. Kate Robinson, Mrs. Glenna Buchanan and Mrs. Berl Thomas served as hostesses.
