Anita Fox, daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Fox, was elected Secretary and Treasurer of Student Christian Association of Montreat Anderson College.

Mrs. Alice Smith and daughter have returned to Florida after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Wilson.

On April 20th the Newdale Extension Homemakers Club honored their senior citizens with a covered dish dinner at the Community Center. The devotion was given by Mrs. Mary Margaret Deyton and Mrs. Helen McKimney. 18 attended the meeting from ages 6 months to 82 years of age. The day was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Young and family have moved to Newdale. We were glad to have them at church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Young and family, from Hendersonville, North Carolina, visited Mr. and Mrs. Glen McMahan over the weekend.

Pfc. Janice Robinson and her fiance, Lance Corporal Lee Stone of Cherry Point, N. C., visited relatives & friends over the weekend. Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Euranious Robinson.

Call a friend today and tell them you love them.

Tomorrow may be too late.

If any little love of mine may make a life the brighter,
If any little care of mine may make a heart the lighter,
If any little lift may ease the burden of another,

God give me love and care and strength to help my needy brother.

Homemakers Workshop

Seven homemakers from Yancey County joined more than 150 Crafts leaders from Western North Carolina for a two day training workshop in Creative Crafts at Assembly Inn, Montreat, N.C. April 13 and 14.
