The actor Joseph Jefferson spent most of his life playing Rip Van Winkle!

Maybe it's time you had two checking accounts!

His and hers. Having two checking accounts is a simple way to keep accurate records and pay bills. Your cancelled checks and check stubs show you what was spent and where. Help with budgeting, too. And checking is free at Northwestern with a $100 minimum monthly balance. Joint accounts are great. But sometimes two accounts (and we won't mention reasons) just might be the answer.
