

United In Marriage

Mrs. William Gary Whitson

Miss Patricia Letterman and William Gary Whitson were married at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, June 12, in the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. R. C. Mumpower.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Enzy Letterman of Green Mountain and Mr. Whitson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Shurl Whitson of Relief, N. C.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Anita Neil, Mr. Charlie Boone and Miss Susan Hensley.

The church was flanked with spiral candelabras and baskets of white gladiolas and shasta daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a self-made and designed full-length Empire gown of candlelight bridal satin with antique lace sleeves. Her waist-length mantilla of English net was edged with antique lace.

Mrs. Teresa Selmeth, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a lemon yellow full-length crepe gown with tucked bodice and puffed sleeves trimmed in lace.

Bridesmaids were Miss Shilda Woody of Burnsville, Miss Eleanor Duckett of Vienna, Va., Miss Marcia Gay and Mrs. Judi Robertson of Asheville. Their gowns were lime-green and each carried a cascade of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Miss April Lewis and Tommy Lewis of Cherry Point were junior attendants.

Tommy Robertson was best man and ushers were Chris Cooper of Shelby, John Felmeth, Lynn Robinson and Dan Perry of Asheville.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua crepe dress accented with alencon lace and matching accessories.

The groom's mother wore a rose dress featuring lace bodice and crepe skirt.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Claudette Webster and Mrs. T. E. Lewis registered the guests.

Following the rehearsal on Friday night, Major and Mrs. T. E. Lewis were hosts to a cake cutting held on the lawn of the bride's parents home.

The bride received a BS degree in home economics at Mars Hill College and Mr. Whitson attended East Tennessee State University and Western Piedmont College.

The couple will live in Waynesville, where Mr. Whitson will be employed as a counselor and supervisor to a boys camp.
