Briggs' Art Work On Display

The works of George H. Briggs of Winston Salem, N.C. are on exhibition at the Art Gallery at the Yancey County Country Store, for the rest of June. Mr. Briggs' paintings are usually described as "Impressionistic". He is a self-taught artist who loves to paint, and uses color to project mood, atmosphere and time of year like few artists are capable of. Nothing is contrived or forced in his works, and even though Mr. Briggs claims he knows nothing about painting, when you look hard at his work, you find the "knowing" is there.

Mr. Briggs has had numerous shows, including Syracuse, New York, as long ago as 1945 and 1947; the International Show, Contemporary Gallery, in New York City in 1955, and Winston Salem in 1969 as well as many others.

WOMEN PAST 21 WITH BLADDER IRRITATION Suffer Many Troubles
