Miss Marcia Kaye Banks and John Ira Young were married Sunday, June 20th, at 2:00 p. m. in the Bolens Creek Baptist Church. The Rev. Calvin Smith conducted the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel M. Banks. Mr. Young is the son of Mrs. Claude Young of Spruce Pine and the late Mr. Young.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a full-length empire gown of nylon organza appliqued with Venise lace, fashioned with long full sleeves and mandarin collar. She wore a detachable chapel train of nylon organza appliqued and edged in venise lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to flower petals of venise lace. She carried a white Bible, gift from her grandmother, covered with a cascade of shasta daisies.

Miss Carol Young was maid of honor. She wore a full length empire gown of blue dotted swiss with a headpiece to match and carried a nosegay of shasta daisies to match the dress. Bridesmaids were Miss Jeannie Biggerstaff and Mrs. Rachael Boone. Their gowns were similar to that of the honor attendant in mint green and pink.

Junior attendants were Miss Laura Holcombe and Tommy Parker. Miss Holcombe wore a full length white empire gown of dotted swiss and carried a basket of daisies. Tommy was dressed in white trousers and navy blazer.

The bridegroom's brother, Benny Young, was best man, and ushers were Richard Banks, brother of the bride and Bobby Young, brother of the groom.

Music was furnished by Mr. Charlie Boone, who played the theme from Romeo and Juliet and Mr. Jerry Clevenger who sang lyrics from "Love Story" and The Lord's Prayer.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. Mrs. Kathleen Byrd, Mrs. Burdette Johnson, Mrs. Rick Baccan and Mrs. Tracy Banks assisted.

After a trip to Myrtle Beach, the couple will reside in Spruce Pine.
