Parade Plans

White Oak Creek Community Club had their monthly meeting on Monday evening.

Plans are being formulated for the annual White Oak Creek 4th of July Parade.

The Parade will be held on Saturday, July 3rd at 11 a.m.

The Community Picnic will be held immediately following the parade at the Harrison's Music Park. Food will be provided by each family. There will be music and games and friends are invited.

May 23rd, planned and organized by brothers Clarence Harrison of White Oak Creed Road in South Toe and Robert Harrison of Busick. They feature Country and Bluegrass Music and Gospel Music by many professional music groups and the Harrisons hope to present several name stars in the future.

Performances have been held outdoors for the past weeks, but a building is due to arrive this week, hopefully in time for this Sunday's concert.

Admission to the performances is $3.00 for this Sunday's special one, but $2.00 is the standard admission fee, with children under 12 free. Performances begin at 2:00 p.m. each Sunday, and the Sunday concerts are scheduled to be held through September.

Michael Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison, a drummer who performs with many of the groups, will be married on stage after this Sunday's performance to Miss Sidney Poole of LaCenter, Washington.

Local Youths At Workshop

Three young Burnsville residents, Jeannie Biggerstaff, Linda Deyton and Charlie Boone, will attend the workshops of Music in the Mountains at Mars Hill College beginning June 27 and extending through July 24. The workshops will be led by a professional staff of 13 skilled teachers and performers and are open to students and amateur musicians of all ages.

Miss Biggerstaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Biggerstaff, and Valedictorian of her class at East Yancey High School this Spring, will attend Appalachian State University in September with plans to major in music education. A piano student for the past 9 years, Miss Biggerstaff intends to use the workshop experience to develop her talent in keyboard instruments and to become more familiar with ensemble work.

Miss Deyton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Deyton, is also a pianist and, like Miss Biggerstaff, has been a pupil of Mrs. Joan Reeve for a number of years. Miss Mayland of 1970, Miss Deyton is a graduate of East Yancey High School and will enter the Sophomore Class of Berry College in Georgia this fall holding scholarships for both music and general academic excellence.

Mr. Boone, a rising senior at East Yancey High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leonard Boone. He has studied piano for the past 7 years as well as organ during the past winter with Professor Donna Robertson of Mars Hill College. He is presently serving as organist of the First Baptist Church in Burnsville, and this summer is heading a cooperative youth project preparing a contemporary musical entitled "Purpose."

Dean's List

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Edge were named to the Dean's List for the spring semester at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Biggerstaff Gets RD Award

Miss Clara Jean Biggerstaff, valedictorian of the graduating class at East Yancey High School, has been given the Annual Award of the Reader's Digest Association for students who by their successful school work give promise of attaining leadership in the community, it was announced today by Mr. Woodrow M. Anglin, principal.

Miss Biggerstaff will receive an honorary one-year subscription to The Reader's Digest in any one of its 13 language-editions which she chooses, and a personal certificate from the Editors "in recognition of past accomplishments and in anticipation of unusual achievement to come."

The Reader's Digest Association is presenting these awards in senior high schools throughout the United States to the highest honor student of each graduating class.

The award to Miss Biggerstaff, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Biggerstaff of Burnsville, was made possible through the cooperation of Mr. Anglin and his teaching staff. They selected Miss Biggerstaff to receive the award, designed to stimulate scholarship, citizenship, and continued contact with good reading after graduation.
