C.D. Wilson Campground

Pensacola, N.C.

You are invited to take a good rest in Pensacola, N. C. where disturbance is not permitted. When you enter our Campground you become one of us, so don't fail to call when you need help.

I have to offer you one of the cleanest camp-grounds known and I endeavor to keep it that way for your, and our sake.

You have plenty of open space to roam around in... on foot or horseback, nice mountains to climb, or rough jungles to explore; even the death trap where Elisha Mitchell lost his life a short distance from Mt. Mitchell.

There are plenty of services available nearby, including an airport at Pensacola which is only four miles North of my Camp, and plenty of Trout Fishing nearby.

I have accommodations for house trailers, mobile homes, tents, picnic spots, plenty of good shade and also plenty of sun if you wish.

You cannot miss the Camp. I am located directly on Highway 197 between Pensacola, N. C. and Barnardsville, N.C. (Four miles South of Pensacola and nine miles North of Barnardsville).
