Cattail News

Each week sees new arrivals at Cattail---

The Charles Capps of Coral Gables have arrived to spend two weeks with Mrs. Capps' parents, the Dr. Harringtons.

The Diamond family is here as are the Stacey family --and the Chiles, newcomers to our area.

Mrs. Grassmuck of Storybook Home entertained as her guests on Sunday Dr. Harold Brooks and family of Ft. Lauderdale, currently conducting a Revival at Higgins Memorial Methodist Church of Burnsville. Other guests were Mrs. Troy Ray of Burnsville and Mrs. N. Renaldo of Cattail.

Monday evening found the Wm. Hechart residence the scene of a lovely dinner party in honor of Mrs. Hechart's birthday (we won't tell how many). Some 14 Cattailers arrived to pay tribute to the lovely little lady who plays the organ at the Pensacola Methodist Church and gives of herself in community activities.

Most of the Hechart guests found their way later in the evening to the community hall where they attended the showing of our first movie "The Eagle Has Landed."

We hope more of our residents will take advantage of our community house activities. Movies on Monday--Bingo on Wednesday and Card on Friday. All at 7:30 - You all come!
